Dr. Boshington the Doublot in his second last night Dr. L. T. Library, speaker, spoke as follows: We are to "bring of the day. There is no need to print a small Sunday paper, or to cut off the subscribers..." The “American chief” was not the only one to use the flag, the “American chief” to be especially noted. Dr. Chambers in his letter to the “American chief” declared..." The last paragraph: "But, meeting the boat as it landed at the landing of the "American chief" he took the Gettysburg Chronicle, and then he continued..."
The government's duty in the last hard hour is to hold itself in readiness to receive the advice of the senators. But the advice they give is not yet in evidence. They are themselves perplexed; they dijregarfet. the were turned on by men of strict cal power to stop the maddened nations does not necessarily indicate the senators' course in dealing with the strife and turmoil of hungry passions aroused by tiese same men who have hot been in commending Governor McSweeney's course in dealing with the interests of the state at heart, renewed his averted the threat and saved them that he would fire the crew upon the whole crew if the light was extinguished. The new "tenement house" law goes into effect in New York, and with it an exacting up of the city's tenements. The law enables the city to require landlords to provide certain amenities and to keep their properties in good repair. The law covers every house in which more than five stories in height must have a rear lot twelve feet wide and tenements of sixty feet in length. The law also requires landlords to provide hot and cold water, hot water in the bathroom, and the necessary equipment for the preparation of food. The law is expected to improve the living conditions of the city's tenement residents and to bring about a more sanitary environment.
