SACRIFICING LIFE.

What would be required to effect so greatly a change in the methods of justice, and to bring about a more humane and fair treatment of the condemned? In many instances of future happiness, the life of the murderer is more precious than human life is held in esteem. But, may the Judge of all men, who is eterne, and whose judgment is not to be moved, have mercy on the poor and the helpless! May he, in his infinite wisdom, grant them mercy and forgiveness! May the world be enlightened by the example of those who have been spared, and may they be an inspiration to others! May the world be made more humane and merciful! May the world learn to value life and the sacredness of human life! May the world be made more just and equitable! May the world be made more peaceful and harmonious! May the world be made more virtuous and moral! May the world be made more civilized and advanced! May the world be made more prosperous and healthy! May the world be made more blessed and happy! May the world be made more perfect and ideal! May the world be made more glorious and majestic! May the world be made more prosperous and healthy! May the world be made more blessed and happy!
