FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1904.

We Are Not Alone.

We know that many and even as many as this small community, there are no outdoorsmen and of this without realizing the fact that a vast number who didn’t first speak of it as a fact. We can point out a statement that was made years ago, and we do not believe that there was any trouble about securing it. The fact is that it is not only mark very little more.

Wanting to improve the appearance of the face and to understand the importance of health, we would be looking to the future.

Another area, which we think could be secured, every requirement in the way of pleasant and attractive environment. We have no unremittent zeal in this matter, but we believe that a great many of the people who have their health care, and so they would think about it.

We don’t want our grandchildren to live up and conduct our short-sighted judgment, and conduct the movement and cut it out of the future horizons, more to get it out of the way than to preserve it.

In Memoria Monem.

Below is a list of pupils of the graded schools who were neither tardy nor during the 4 months of the past year. RODMAN, June 1.—We had a good rain this evening, which was greatly needed. The little corn and cotton will begin to grow. Cotton has been chopped but I expect it will have to be chopped over again. Corn is looking well.

Now is the time for setting out potato plants, which is a tedious task.

June cherries are getting ripe and cherries too will be enjoyed by all. The birds are enjoying the cherries to the fullest extent.

Several from here attended the celebration at Huppwell and enjoyed it very much.

A good number of our people took advantage of the cheap rates to Charlotte and spent two days pleasantly in that pretty city.

| Mrs. W. H. Brak...
Two South Carolinians on February 16, 1942, were sentenced in the U. S. District Court at Columbia, South Carolina, by Judge George Bell Timmerman to prison terms after pleading guilty to submitting fraudulent income tax returns.

L. A. Marsha of 1329 Fairview Drive, Columbia, South Carolina, owner and operator of a textile brokerage firm here, drew a sentence of a year and a day in Federal prison plus a fine of $5,000.00. Joseph D. Palairz, Dillon, South Carolina department store owner, was sentenced to six months in prison plus a fine of $1,000.00.

Agents of the Internal Revenue Bureau testified that Mr. Marsha had filed false and fraudulent tax returns for the years 1942, 1943, and 1944 by not recording some sales, inflating business expenses and concealing income. For the year 1943 Marsha reported an income of $11,263.03 the agent said, while his income should have been reported as $73,485.69.
For the year 1944 he reported an income of $48,932.33, but his income was actually $276,891.00.

In addition to the fine and prison sentence, assessment of additional income tax for the three years referred to above amounted to $251,896.76 plus fraud penalty of $125,528.87 and interest amounting to $20,143.66.
The total additional assessed against Marsha amounted to $397,569.32.

In the case of Joseph D. Palairz, the additional tax assessed against him amounted to $29,836.75, the fraud penalty $15,210.60, and interest of $6,017.38, making a total of $51,065.23.
The agents of the Bureau of Internal Revenue testified that the gross sales of Mr. Palara in 1942 were $38,812.85, of which $16,973.10 was unreported. In 1943 his sales were $99,473.00, of which $19,856.83 was unreported, and in 1944 his sales were $153,477.60, of which $30,966.49 was unreported.

From the best records available, these are the first cases involving the filing of fraudulent income tax returns in South Carolina which have gone to trial and brought about a sentence in many years. There is some indication that there may be some additional cases of this type in the near future.
