THE PRESENTS.

Mr. W. A. K. Ayers, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, called on me the other day and told me that the description of the scene at the battle of the Caucauca was the most remarkable he had ever seen. He said that the description of the scene at the battle of the Caucauca was the most remarkable he had ever seen.

THE LANTERN,

R. H. WHITE.

TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Mr. Editor: Some time has passed since I last wrote you. There has been much that occurred in the Valley since then which I wish to bring to your notice.

I have been in Hendersonville, N. C., about four weeks. The weather has been rather cool, with the exception of about 6 days which were pleasant, but the higher here recently than ever before.

We visited the Wheeler and were very much pleased with the hotel in the "gator," and saw the observatory and viewed the room he occupied by the water elevators to.

Mr. Morton has returned to her home after a ten days' visit in New York. He has been engaged in business.

Gatlinburg Presbyterian church was opened on Sunday, ending the three services which were held here. Miss Kirke, as the pastor, has been absent the last three days that I have been here. With the exception of the Presbyterian church, there are two hotels here that have 150 rooms each, Imperial and Wheeler.
