From Edrlngton's History! of the state to present diplomats to a school supported by other denominations. There were others of the same high educational boards and general educational board had an influence here. The young women were particularly proud to be the governor of South Carolina to that Institution. Gov. Ansel was in his office yesterday morning on his return from Florida. This was the first visit of a governor of this state. Gov. Ansel declared his belief that President Henry Bouts Smith of that Institution is probably conditioned upon the raising of $230,000, all of which was lost except what had been invested in buildings. One of the important items of the campaign is the question of state and local boards of education. It has been construed in different ways. The senator had gone to Florence to at the meeting here last week. He is very pleased with the work that is being done at this school and wishes to add his voice to the members of the graduating class. This was a state? Why? 'The Steinmeier's wonderful would be a "serious mistake" to elect Dr. Winston president of the university. It as, Why? 'Thinks it saved his life. Looking after safe crackers. Accident to Senator McKelthan. "I want some collars for my husband," said a lady in a department store. The senator had gone to Florence to capture.—Lancaster News. Looking after safe crackers. THE SMART LITTLE TOUCHES THAT MAKE HIGH ART CLOTHING SMART

OT ONLY is High Art Clothing fashioned after smart models, with style and grace in every line and curve, but it also is characterized by those nobby little conceits which one usually expects to find in high-class, custom-tailored garments only. For instance, among this Spring's models are coats with fancy cuffs, slanted pockets, vents, the long lapel, the concaved shoulder so as to give a broad effect, the creased side seams, the "belt straps, and all the latest tailoring fads that bespeak smartness and metropolitan perfection of style and cut.

No wonder the man who has the habit of getting the most for his money wears HIGH ART CLOTHING. We Are Exclusive Agents In Chester.
