CHESTER, S. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1901.

Dr. Carlisle on Martyrdom Vision of Peace—A strong incident of the Ex-crises at Charleston.

The following description of a vision of peace was written by C. A. and was one of his granddaughters, who was in attendance.

One of the most important and heart-wrenching events that happened at the beginning of the centennial celebration of the War of 1861 was the death of Dr. Carlisle. He was the type perfect type of a hero. His death was a tragedy.

Dr. Carlisle had been among the first to volunteer for service in the army of the Confederate States of America and held the rank of captain. He was a brave soldier, beloved by all who knew him.

Dr. Carlisle's most notable work was his service as a surgeon in the Civil War. He was one of the first to introduce the use of chloroform as an anesthetic and made many contributions to the field of medicine.

Dr. Carlisle was a man of great courage and determination.

He never faltered in his Commitment to the cause of peace and was well-known for his staunch] anti-war positions. He was a man of peace and

known for his unyielding support of the Union.

Dr. Carlisle's
termination came during the Battle of Shiloh, where he was killed in action.

... Rev. John G. King, says the American Telephone Company is justly termed a good deal of talk to an account of our public spaces. Speaking in New York recently, the Rev. King said: "Are we sure that the telephone is going to be a necessary part of every home in the country? Indeed, in the Northern states, it is a very important part of every home. The telephone is becoming a necessity in every home, and it is being used for purposes of communication. In the Southern states, it is not as extensively used, but it is being used for purposes of communication."

... The comment is just, as Mr. Killick and Mr. T. H. White, are able to lead easy lives but the laboring man? Have they taken on the pose. About twenty times an hour all the blood in your body passes through and is filtered by your kidneys. Think what this means: if your kidneys are not strong and healthy they do not extract all the poisonous matter from the blood and the result will be misery and misery that will remain until these organs are once more brought back to healthy activity.

These symptoms will tell you
