LOSS OF EARL KITCHEENER WAS GREAT BLOW TO GREAT BRITAIN

York County News

June 8, 1916

York County, June 8—The loss of Earl Kitchener was a great blow to Great Britain, according to the Mayor of York. The mayor, speaking at a meeting of the county council, said that the loss of Kitchener would be felt throughout the country.

Kitchener was the commander of the British Expeditionary Force in France, and his death was a great loss to the country. The mayor said that Kitchener had done more for the country than any other man.

The mayor also spoke of the love and respect that the people of York had for Kitchener. He said that Kitchener had been a father figure to many of the young men who had left their homes to fight for their country.

The mayor ended his speech by saying that the people of York would remember Kitchener for the rest of their lives.
DUELLING IN AMERICA.

The nation's capital was the scene of a duel on the 21st of July last. Two men of the name of Hughes, from the neighboring counties of Maryland and Virginia, met on that day at the request of a gentleman from that state, who had been a frequent visitor in the city. The two parties were engaged in a dispute as to certain lands, which had been surveyed by the government, and which were claimed by both parties. The defendant, in a fit of passion, drew his revolver, and the plaintiff, in self-defense, also drew his. The gun was discharged, but the bullet missed the mark. The parties then retired to their respective homes, and the matter was referred to a committee of three arbitrators, who were to hear the evidence and decide the case. The committee was composed of Mr. John H. Hughes, of Maryland, and Mr. John H. Hughes, of Virginia, both of whom are well known for their integrity and ability. The arbitration was held on the 25th of July, and the arbitrators decided in favor of the plaintiff. The defendant is now in the hands of the law, and the case will be tried by a jury of impartial men. The parties are friends, and any future dispute will be settled by amicable means. The defendant is a refined gentleman, and the plaintiff is a man of strong character. The duel was not without its effect on the public mind, as it gave rise to much discussion and controversy. The latest news from the cities is that the defendant has been convicted of murder, and is now in prison, awaiting his trial. The plaintiff is now residing in his home, surrounded by his friends and relatives, and is in good health and spirits.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9.

SATISFYING THE HUNGER.

The town of York, as well as the country, is suffering from the scarcity of food. The price of provisions has risen to an alarming degree, and the people are finding it difficult to procure enough to sustain them. The scarcity is due to the failure of the crops, and the bad weather, which has continued for a long time. The government has taken measures to alleviate the sufferings of the people, and has provided for the distribution of provisions to those in want. The people are now looking to the government for relief, and are hopeful of obtaining it. The government is doing all that is in its power to alleviate the sufferings of the people, and is doing everything that is within its power to prevent the recurrence of such a calamity. Are You a "BLUE SERGE" Man?

We can spot him in a crowd. He is always neat and in trim in appearance. He comes in and asks to see clothes—lacks a few fancy suits and ends by saying: "Oh, well, show me a Blue Serge." And we show him a Blue Serge that IS a Blue Serge—

He may choose a two-button or a three-button—he may want a patch pocket or a flap pocket—a wide or narrow lapel—we give him what he wants—but besides, he gets the smartest, handsomest, best Blue Serge that Good Judge can select and Good Money can buy—and he pays from $15 to $25.

PROPERTIES

In Arkansas, the list of persons killed would reach 60, with some thousands injured.

The death list at Judsonia, a town of about 200 people, has been definitely reduced to nine. All are negroes, although three injured white persons are reported. Casualties followed quite closely. From Forest City, with one report that two more persons are reported to have been killed and about 40 injured; from Ozark, with one report that two more persons are reported to have been killed and about 40 injured.

If all delays could be avoided, it would be possible to report the results of the storm as early as possible. If more persons are reported injured, it will be possible to report the results of the storm as early as possible.
