When You May Make Marital Life a Success.

"She is the weaker sex," say the world's writers and philosophers, but they forget that the woman's physical and mental strength is often much greater than that of the man. She has a greater sense of duty and a greater capacity for endurance. She is more patient and more thoughtful. She is also more hospitable and considerate. Therefore she should be treated with respect and consideration.

Such a mistake is not surprising where advocates by McLaurin, with no satisfaction of Mr. Newberry. The Newberry Hall cannot say that it believes in Mr. McLaurin’s doctrines. It does not believe in the “return of the spirit of the Newberry Hall,” just as it disbelieves in those doctrines. The Newberry Hall does not believe that the Newberry Hall is under the control of Mr. McLaurin’s doctrines. It is not under the control of any doctrines, but is under the control of the people who have given it the means of carrying out its aims.

We believe that the fact in the whole matter is that the individual who is elected by the people is elected on account of his personal merits and not on account of his political affiliation. We believe that the individual who is elected by the people is elected on account of his personal ability, and not on account of his political affiliation. We believe that the individual who is elected by the people is elected on account of his personal good character, and not on account of his political affiliation.
