AND UNDESIRABLE.

The country is apprised of the following telegram received from Secretary of War: "The Government is desirous of receiving the names of all persons who have been in the habit of frequenting the offices of the German Communist Party, and desire to make a careful search for those who may have been instrumental in assisting the German cause in the United States during the war."

The telegram has been interpreted as an indication of the intention of the Government to take action against those who have been associated with the German Communist Party during the war. The telegram was received by the Government on the 12th of December, and the names of those who have been in the habit of frequenting the offices of the German Communist Party are now being investigated.

The long arm of coincidence was it is expected that the war economy will be enormous. This increased economy will need the services of many more clerks and bookkeepers. Through training and the use of new machinery and systems, the efficiencies of these clerks will be increased. The increased efficiency will, in turn, result in greater savings for the businesses involved, and this, in turn, will be reflected in the increased efficiency of the war economy.
