NOVEL CHASE IN FLORENCE

AGED CHICK FINDER, YOUNG AND OLDER

Florence, June 7—Florence was the scene of a novel and somewhat sensational chase yesterday. E. F. Mayes, aged 83, and a resident of the city, high on an article of the domestic science section in the Times-Observer, put on a pair of mules and set out in search of chickens.

Mayes, despite his age, proved to be a capable and skillful hidder, and after an exciting chase, he emerged victorious with a quart of chickens.

As for the mules, they were put up for auction at the local fair today, and according to the bids, they are expected to sell for a record-breaking price.

GERMANS TELL ALL IN THEIR RETREAT

From New York Temple, June 8—The Germans, in their recent retreat, have told all. They admit that they are completely out of ideas and are planning to surrender.

The news has shocked the nation, but it is hoped that this is the end of the war and that peace will be restored.

GERMAN BARBARISM NOT BARBARISM TO THE GERMANS

A letter from Red Cross Troop of Florence, June 9—Barbarism to the Americans is not barbarism to the Germans. They believe that their actions were justified.

The letter has caused a stir in the community, but it is hoped that this will not affect the ongoing peace negotiations.

HELPING RUSSIAN HARVEST

Russian visitors to Florence, June 10—The Russian visitors have arrived in Florence to help with the harvest. They are expected to stay for two weeks.

The visitors will be housed in the local fairgrounds and will be provided with meals and accommodations.

ARMY AVIATORS HELP IN LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

Lancaster, June 11—Army aviators, who have been helping in the Liberty loan campaign, have arrived in Lancaster.

They have been assigned to patrol the local area and to monitor the progress of the campaign.

HOW TO CAN BEANS

Winnsboro, June 8—This afternoon a demonstration on how to can beans was held in the local fairgrounds. The demonstration was attended by a large crowd.

The speaker, Mr. J. W. Elmore, demonstrated how to prepare the beans and can them properly.

SHOW DECREASE

Columbia, June 11—The number of applications for State automobile licenses has decreased over the past week. This is likely due to the ongoing war.

AUTO LICENSES

The decrease in auto licenses is a concern for the state. They are working on finding a solution to this issue.

NEW AUTOS

Springfield, June 7—The new model autos have arrived in Springfield. They are expected to be a hit with the local residents.

The autos are equipped with the latest technology and are expected to be a great addition to the city.

SMALL TOWN DESTRUCTION

The small town of Florence was destroyed by a bomb yesterday. The town is a complete loss.

The town was not in the war zone, but the bomb was mistaken for a friendly fire.

The residents are in shock and are working to rebuild the town.

VETERANS IN CRAY

The war has left many veterans with injuries. They are working to help these veterans find their place in society.

The veterans are being assisted by local charities and are expected to receive further assistance.

EARTH SHOCKS DESTROY TOWNS

The recent earthquakes have caused damage to several towns in the area. The residents are working to clean up and rebuild the town.

The damage caused by the earthquakes is extensive, but the residents are determined to rebuild their communities.

It was the Board itself that stated it is a filth to take to the free market a number of children. The State Board of Health called the experiments that trifled with and endangered the health of age its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has operated under its predecessor, Mount Vernon, and other narcotic substances. Its present prohibition, Madison, New York, and other narcotic substances. The Board, therefore, decided to act quickly.
