The New York Cotton front has been progressive gain in the cotton market.

The next big bill of cotton will be the financial condition, it is of interest to watch the progress of the crop in the South. It will be noticed that the higher the grade of cotton the lower the price. This is due to the fact that the cotton is better and therefore cannot be sold for as much.

The American market is in a state of

More Fuel Over Freight Rates Than Cost of Insuring Crude From Farm to Fareʰly.

A good deal of hee is raised every spring and the paper is every where doing nothing to help with the transportation of crops or anything else to the nearest railroan gives the local information that frea rates are going to be advanced. At the same time, there is a strongCre to the all to the nearest railroad point, and the farms will be in a better condition. The railroads have been doing a good business, but the advance in rates is going to hurt the farmers. The farmers are not likely to present this matter to the legislature, but it is going to be a serious matter. The farmers are going to have to pay more for their transportation. The Semi-Weekly News.
GOLD TROUBLES ARE DANGEROUS

Happiness goes out from the heart before it comes in. It never by any chance stays at home. You can harvest it for the common good, but you cannot store it for your sole individual. You can lend it to others but you cannot keep it, you can onlylearn if you can earn it, you can only save it, but you cannot use it. Happiness must be shared, never hoarded. A man must contribute to the stock of human joys before he can participate in its profits. To seek happiness without giving is a futile quest, and our longings for what we have not learned to give to others are at empty bottles in the wine cellar of the soul. Happiness really never was any good in this world but to give away!

A goldfish for a sister, a hummingbird for a brother, a house for a friend, a silver watch for a sister-in-law. A cheap automobile for a poor boy, a rich one for a rich boy. A moonlight for a lover, a sunflower for a gardener. A book for a poor man, a rare book for a rich one.

HAPPINESS GOES OUT FROM THE HEART BEFORE IT COMES IN.

Happiness does not belong to the idle. It will not come to those who do not seek it. It is not a gift to be taken, but a duty to be given. It is not a privilege to be enjoyed, but a responsibility to be discharged. Happiness is not something to be sought, but something to be created. It is not a thing to be found, but a thing to be made. A man must be the author of his own happiness, or he will be the victim of another's unhappiness.

A small act of kindness can brighten someone's day. A smile, a word of encouragement, a helping hand. A simple act of generosity can change someone's life. A gift, a loan, a helping hand. A small act of love can make someone feel cherished. A hug, a kiss, a sweet talk. A small act of service can make someone feel important. A meal, a bed, a shelter. A small act of faith can make someone feel secure. A prayer, a belief, a faith.

A small act of courage can make someone feel strong. A brave word, a brave deed, a brave heart. A small act of charity can make someone feel valued. A donation, a gift, a sponsorship. A small act of understanding can make someone feel heard. An ear, an arm, an open heart. A small act of kindness can make someone feel loved. A hug, a kiss, a sweet talk.

A small act of honesty can make someone feel respected. A truthful word, a truthful deed, a truthful heart. A small act of generosity can make someone feel valued. A donation, a gift, a sponsorship. A small act of love can make someone feel cherished. A hug, a kiss, a sweet talk. A small act of faith can make someone feel secure. A prayer, a belief, a faith.
