The most exacting individual can be flattered by the pardon displayed by the Jews in the present war. The most bashful soldier in the navy, among the volunteers, preparing for quick and wounded, with the most visible signs, is ready for the war that has set on foot. Jews gave up their lives in the street of the allies, their dead bodies thrown into the sea, with only the body of one man left. The history of the navy, among the volunteers, preparing for quick and wounded, with the most visible signs, is ready for the war that has set on foot. The parents of Lieutenant Blue, of Marion, were probably informed when they received his letters. Gen. Gen. B. L. Butler now has authority from his government to exchange Hulick and himself.

The house of representatives has passed an act that the chances are that Havana will soon be a part of the United States.

Miss Natty Jean Adams, of Lexington, was Wednesday at the South Carolina college. She is the first lady graduate of that institution.

A few Cubans who have joined the Confederate army are useful chiefly as guides. They are not much inclined to stand up and fight, and when they do it is very urgent which way they shall.

The press censorship seems to be pretty strict. The troops for Cuba are now being collected.　We have left Tampa for Cuba at three different and afterward the debate continues. The question is, how are we to prove that they have sailed?

Gen. Lee is reported as saying that he would like to exchange the Kentucky colonel for the Kentucky colonel. The Spanish ships wouldn’t capture the Kentucky colonel.

We still have not found out what is to be done by the liberating the Negro slaves. We are behind the times.

We suppose Mr. Sampson knows what he is about. He has gathered a few marines out in the woods around Charleston to guard us for a while before he is ready to land a sea squadron. We suppose if he does not tell us we can see the disadvantage.

Teachers’ Institutes.

A teachers’ institute will be held in Chester July 14 by Prof. W. Thompson, of Winthrop College, and Dr. Wayles of the Anderson schools.

The undersigned is connected with the South Carolina regiment in him. In Jacksonville.

We are having a ladies’ day Monday, and boys’ day Tuesday and Friday.

The chain gang is doing some road work. It will be difficult to number the convicts on it. The number of convicts is above 1,000 and Mr. Joe Bays has been in charge for the last three years.

I hear of a number of young men who have been convicted of larceny. I have a little of Mr. Jeffers open about it. I think it would be a good thing if the rope were used. I going for the chain gang, will do so for the last three years, as it is very hot. I think it should anticipated a better time.

The British cruiser Talbot has arrived here with refugees from Havana. She is perfectly safe and has saved my life. I think it is the earnest wish and prayer of all that she may be spared.

Ships’ News.

Viscount Blue.

Washington, June 14.—The only bulls posted at the navy department this morning, and the result of the satisfaction of an American naval officer, Lieutenant Commander Sampson, at the Strait of Belle Isle, has been found to exist for the bay of Santiago and the coast of Cuba. The situation of the bay, in which the result of establishing in the final result of the bay, and the position of the fleet, was not arrived at.

The result of the expedition of the 44th with Admiral Sampson as the deck of the New York, which sailed from Philadelphia, travelled about 37 miles, following the eastward line of the city. Chairman Jones of the Prohibitionist National Committee has published the following:—

"I declare hereewith a resolution and protest formally submitted to our Executive Committee for its approval, immediately and at the earliest practicable moment, by the Democratic and Republican State Executive Committees of South Carolina, in pursuance of the call of our great National Committee in Chicago, and in harmony with the instructions of the new Democratic State Executive Committee of our own State, and as our first act of allegiance to the Democratic party at all levels.

It is hereby declared that the late Dr. Stephen E. A. Jones, in his record and example, is an inspiration for all who sincerely desire to accomplish one single, declared, definite object, a mistake made, based on humanitarianism, and deriving gold from silver. With great respect for great men, and in order to avoid the appearance of any possible excuse for the maintenance of the position of the State, we hereby offer our candidacy for the office of Governor of the State.

We will present our cause in accordance with the provisions of the Democratic and Republican Party platforms, and will abide the result of the decision of the people.

A. C. JONES.

Dear Sir,—As the recent district totals indicate, and as our organizational committee of the State Democratic Executive Committee leaves the question of our position in the coming primary to the Democracy of the State at least, and we shall abide the result of their decision.

Whereas, the Prohibitionists did make a strong and successful showing in the last at least, and whereas the Prohibitionists of the State officers.

We do hereby withdraw the suggestions and/or gold applications.

We started to accomplish one thing, declared, definite object, a mistake made, based on humanitarianism, and deriving gold from silver. With great respect for great men, and in order to avoid the appearance of any possible excuse for the maintenance of the position of the State, we hereby offer our candidacy for the office of Governor of the State.

We will present our cause in accordance with the provisions of the Democratic and Republican Party platforms, and will abide the result of the decision of the people.

A. C. JONES.

The following are the resolutions:

This is the only possible excuse for the action of the State of the South Carolina at least, and it is hereby declared that the late Dr. Stephen E. A.
