WASHINGTON LETTER.

Chester, S. C., Tuesday, June 21, 1898.

From Chickamauga.

Note About Camp Life.

The ration list here will make the boys fat, in fact, numbers of them will have to be put on a chow diet. The ration for a day for a soldier is as follows: bread; two pounds of rice; one pound of potatoes; one pound of salt pork; one pound of sugar; three cups of coffee; one cup of tea. The meal is served three times a day, and the officers' mess is separate from the men's mess. The officers' mess is a large tent, and the men's mess is a smaller tent. The officers are served first, and the men are served second. The officers' mess is well furnished, with tables and chairs and a stove. The men's mess is simpler, with only tables and benches.

The New Methodist Church Formally Set Apart.

Last Sabbath was Methodist day in Chester. The church had dispensed with its regular services in order that they might meet, mingle, worship, and rejoice in the company of the congregation present. Not only had the streets been handsomely decorated for the occasion, but the whole land had been abundantly watered from the fountain of all supplies, allowing all to partake of the refreshments plentifully provided.

It is needless to say that a large percentage of the congregation was present, the rest were either absent by unavoidable necessity, or away from home on business. Among the absent, the following are noteworthy:

- Rev. J. L. Davis
- Rev. E. H. Elice
- Rev. T. W. W. Bratton
- Rev. W. E. Newton
- Rev. J. W. Smith
- Rev. C. H. White

The platform was appropriately decorated with a few choice specimens of flowers, which added to the general enjoyment of the congregation. The entire service was conducted in a most satisfactory manner, and all present were thoroughly pleased with the proceedings.

Landford News.

"Bonnie Bossie" feels rather blue and sad today. I couldn't tell the reason if I had to. But I'll have to correct myself with the old familiar words: "If I had to tell the story, I'd have to tell it to the people of God." The story is full of joy and sorrow, but I don't think it is appropriate for me to speak of it today.
