SEMIA NNUAL

CLEAN SWEEP SALE

July 1st practically marks the end of the clothing season and as we have done a large spring business and reaped a fair reward for our work, we can afford to close out balance of our Summer Stock at whatever price it may bring. We must clear the deck for action in the fall. Being pelted with dollar bills and making no effort to catch them would be about as wise a proceeding as the man who buys his clothing without coming here and learning our prices, and about as profitable. Money saved is worth as much as money earned. If prices slashed to the very quick will vacate our tables, they shall truly be vacated.

Amusing Situation, or the "Horse in the Bag."—I have been told that there is a man in Ohio who only smiles when he is riding a pink elephant. The moral of the story is, "Don't try to please everybody; you'll only succeed if you please yourself."
