Jig,.- Saturday 25th inst., when that big Blackstock this morning to visit Mrs. W., Miss Mattie Thomas, of Charleston, ot pleasure. A GUEST. Mr. " first annual picnic of the employees' ion was that all enjoyed to the full- her sister, Mrs. G. B. Lee.

Tawba river, a most beautiful and landed the happy crowd at their ed with an angry roar over the Massive rocks reared their heads. The engine was equipped with an unusual to the day's gone guesr». The big engine was the accommodation of the employees. The furnishing not only the train, but delayed until the Springstein band. The corporation, the Carolina and there could be lean romantic tar of many happy souls. Here ideal spot for a day of pleasures. The scenery and listening to the cho- of the trip from start to finish, a case every year.

After an afternoon of enjoyment, we arrived in our city, they were pleased with the day's festivities. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. E. McC. Smith. There were separated without hours in the lowest dive of the preacher had said in a sermon was*

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Giv. of Lowryville, were in town yesterday at the home. Mrs. Davidaon and Mr. * gathered and there was far of excitement. Convivial scenes are doing nicely. Melon vines are doing very well, and fruit is abundant, if case every year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allen had a bad case of rheumatism in head and neck and shoulders. Mr. Thomas has been bad with some kidney troubles, but Mr. John Jones is not sick. We have had a rather peculiar complaint in this part of the country, and there have been a number of cases this week. Mr. W. B. Wright has been for a month, and it seemed to impossible that we could not have a day or two. Mrs. W. B. Wright. Mrs. Allen's second child, was born last week, and it seemed impossible that we could not have a day or two. Mrs. Maryland, Mrs. Allen is another fine addition to the family.

Beechworth-Jones. RACCOONVILLE, June 29.-Miss Anna Hendrix, who has been visiting the home of Mr. W. R. Ross and Ernest W. Hendrix, has returned to Charleston. Miss Fannie Hurst has just returned from a splendid vacation with her aunt, Mrs. R. B. Davison of the university. They were separated without hours in the lowest dive of the preacher had said in a sermon was*

The duties of the chancellor are in- 101, 103, 105 Main St., Chester. We hope that the employees will continue to support the corporation, and that the Carolina will be in the hands of capable and enterprising managers. The corporation has made a very good start, and we hope that it will continue to thrive and grow.
