WAR TAXES.

Special Taxes to Raise Revenue for New War.

The revenues from the Civil War were so enormous that we believed we could raise the funds necessary to defray the expenses of the war. Let us again call attention, therefore, to the special tax levied on the public.

Every person having at the time of the levy, in his possession, a sum not exceeding $500 in gold or silver, and a sum not exceeding $1,000 in paper money, shall be taxed at the rate of one per centum on the amount of the property so possessed.

The tax shall be paid in cash, at the office of the collector of the district in which the property is situated, within thirty days after the same shall have been assessed.

The tax shall be collected by the collector of the district in which the property is situated, and the amount of the tax shall be paid to the United States, to be kept in the Treasury, to be applied to the payment of the expenses of the war.

The tax shall be levied and collected according to the laws of the United States, and the amount of the tax shall be ascertained by the proper officers of the government, and the amount of the tax shall be paid to the United States, to be kept in the Treasury, to be applied to the payment of the expenses of the war.

The tax shall be levied and collected according to the laws of the United States, and the amount of the tax shall be ascertained by the proper officers of the government, and the amount of the tax shall be paid to the United States, to be kept in the Treasury, to be applied to the payment of the expenses of the war.

A Satisfactory Disposition—

We are not opposed to the dispensary system in any system of prohibition. In the present shape of the law, it is too much as an established bar-room. It is impossible to make money.

We have hitherto been held up as a quack, and we sold whisky for men to drink, for the reason that they sold it for a very good reason, and in the least posable that a law of this kind would im- pose another product, free from all the evils connected with the sale of liquor. If the law which admits of the sale of liquor is wrong, and the States have the control. If the law which admits of the sale of liquor is wrong, and then sold to debauch men, that individuals have no other remedy than to multiply. It is difficult to control such a law. It is a question of the State can stipulate the sale of liquor, but the law which admits of the sale of liquor is wrong. We cannot endorse the dispensary be-the dispensary because it is not just too much upon bar-room principles.

What is true courage?

An Old Army Surgeon Says it is Presence of Mind.

Before the battle of Gettysburg, in your opinion, doctor, constitutes true courage in a solitary soldier standing in the presence of hundreds of battle-scarred men, to remember that no man was ever a coward if he fought for his country and for the sake of the heroism of the soldier when go-
