The Lantern, Chester S.C.- July 5, 1904

J T. Bigham
THE LANTERN.
Vol. VII. No. 28.
CHESTER, S. C., TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1861.

NOTEABLE SIGNS.

Former Heroes Wounved by Artillery on Brandywine.
The siege of Port Arthur by the Japanese is reported in the press to be the most noteworthy event in modern military history. If reports are correct, the city will be taken next week. The Japanese have already occupied the town and opened fire on the forts. The situation is critical.

FREWSIGHTS.

John Pitchford Remains Lawful Casualty.
Judge J. P. Pitchford of Clarendon, will not win the law in his case.

LETTER OF TRAVEL.

Interesting Notes of a Trip through Many States—York and Chester
Under Water.

I shall return home via Genesee, N.Y., after a pleasant and uneventful journey. The water travelers are wondering when the ice will melt. It is feared that the mail will be delayed for some time.

What seems to have been the characteristic of the day was a change of weather. The temperature fell suddenly, and a heavy rain fell. The afternoon was bright and clear.

A "Little Raymond." Mr. Edmondson's "Little Raymond" is the name given to the great eagle, the largest bird of prey in the world. It is said to be able to fly at an altitude of over 10,000 feet,
and to catch its prey in mid-air.

The antelope is a small buffalo-like animal found in the deserts of the West. It is known for its speed and agility.

Are Your Lungs Week?

Do you cough too much, or is your lungs too weak to sustain life? If so,
there is a cure for you.

A Sober Reflection.

One of the greatest sins is intemperance.
It destroys the health and stunts the growth of the body. It is necessary to moderate one's indulgence in alcohol.

Baldness Treated.

A case was reported last week in which baldness was successfully treated. The patient was given a combination of diet and medication.

Dr. J. W. Connell.

Dr. J. W. Connell is a well-known legislator from South Carolina.

An Abandoned Question.

What is the answer to the question:
"What is the capital of the world?"

Dr. J. W. Connell.

"There is no true capital of the world, as there is no true state of
the world."

"What about New York?"

"New York is the capital of the United States, not of the world."

"But then what is the capital of
the world?"

"There is no capital of the world, as there is no state of
the world."

"But then what is the true state of
the world?"

"There is no true state of the
world, as there is no true state of
the world."

"But then what is the true state of
the world?"

"There is no true state of the
world, as there is no true state of
the world."

"But then what is the true state of
the world?"

"There is no true state of the
world, as there is no true state of
the world."

"But then what is the true state of
the world?"

"There is no true state of the
world, as there is no true state of
the world."

FAMILY CARES

This information may be of value to many a mother. When there is added to the usual cares of a wife, the necessity of providing for the welfare of her family, there is a great deal of work to be done. She is the guardian of her home, the protector of her children. She is the one who must be able to meet emergencies, to provide for the wants of the family.
