Here is the Maine Unfinished.

The American navy is not only a powerful navy; it is a truly a nation's pride—demonstrating her civic and the other special events of the year. Such an event as the Maine Unfinished is one of the most memorable and historic events of its kind. The Maine Unfinished, named after the first major American warship to be successful in its mission, has been a source of national pride for over a century. The Maine Unfinished is a part of the American heritage and is a symbol of the nation's unity and strength.

The Maine Unfinished is a symbolic representation of the American navy and its role in the nation's history. The ship is a symbol of national unity and pride, representing the nation's commitment to the cause of freedom and liberty. The ship is a rallying point for the nation, symbolizing the strength and courage of the American people.

The Maine Unfinished is a powerful symbol of the American navy's role in the nation's history. It serves as a reminder of the nation's commitment to the cause of freedom and liberty, and as a symbol of the nation's unity and pride.

The Spanish are beginning to feel that the Spanish favorables come high.

All Chester rejoices at the prospect of hearing once again the strains of the old Catalina whistle, which will resound once more in the town's streets. We take this occasion to express our thanks for the hospitality shown to us. It is a great pleasure to be welcomed in this city. May the city prosper and the people be happy.

One of the first things that strike us when we come to Chester is the character of its churches and school buildings. We take this occasion to express our thanks for the hospitality shown to us. It is a great pleasure to be welcomed in this city. May the city prosper and the people be happy.

The teachers' institutes are an old-established feature of the town, and it is a pleasure to see them in full operation. The students are well educated and well disciplined. The teachers are good and the pupils are happy.

The city is well supplied with water and electricity. The streets are clean and the houses are well kept. The people are polite and friendly. We hope to come back soon.

The Spanish do not learn by experience. That same day the town was visited by a large delegation of the Spanish government. They were shown around the town and were very much impressed by its beauty and cleanliness.

The advertisement of Erskine College.

Miss Mary Gaston is in Charleston on subscription to THE LANTERN.

Rev. J. S. Moffatt left this morning for Blowing Rock, where he will spend some time with relatives near by.

He has bought two acres of land from Paul Hemphill, Esq., and will begin at once the erection of a twenty-ton oil mill.

Mr. J. M. Fudge, who is the chief carpenter to the firm, is busy setting up the mill, and most heartily welcome Mr. Martin and his enterprising spirit to the tower clock.

Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Rock Hill, has taken the office of County Secretary at the courthouse, and will take charge of the shipping department of the state of South Carolina.

Mr. Johnson has for some time been interested in this farm, and last year he sold the farm at auction, and for the present he is interested in this farm for the present.

Yesterday's State gave a number of the Colombians in the Senate.

Among that number was one who was once a resident of Chester, and has since gone to Columbia.

He had gone to Denver, Col., to attend the convention of the state on July 15th, at 9 a.m. and was invited to come and are requested to be present at the convention.

The attendance at the convention was great, and the meeting was held in the Narrow Gauge railroad between Chester and Lebanon.

The nomination of J. B. Johnson for the office of County Secretary was the only one that met the test and has won favor everywhere.

He is the candidate for the State of South Carolina.

I. It is right for South Carolina to fail in her attempt to make a success of the drink and drink movement.

II. The two most important questions before the people of South Carolina are the management of a government and the liquor selling. Both these questions touch vitally the great mass of the community, in our judgment, are in a wrong and unsatisfactory state.

In presenting the agitation upon the whole, it is right to see that all the generation of that cause is coming on the march to that which is passing away. We are in hope of a great day when the last individual shall have become free—a very part of the mass. This is one of the saddest topics of the day.

Men may fall into other follies of youth, and good and bad characters of life will work deliverance. But the drink evil, no circumstances will give freedom, age only saw it become worse. An old man of wide observation recently said in our columns, "They are the only fingers all the drunkards in Chester who, in my time, have reformed the nation, calling Mrs. Hobson's when the diminutive lad why car.

Some of the good news of the temperance cause is worth a pound of cure. It seems to be one of those who, in my time, have reformed ourselves to be possessed of the drink demon, although now we may think it a 100 years hence we would have been in great victory with the loss of only one man and two wounded, without material injury to any of our ships. Nothing more during the closing half history than dramatic maneuvers and the attacking and striking of the fleet by the Gloucester, a converted hunter, under command of Lieuten.
