The Lantern, Chester S.C.- July 17, 1908

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1908

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1908 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.
JOHN W. KENNEDY from Conrail and pledged his support to the ticket of Bryan and Kern. Delegate J. T. Hill, of Georgia, who in nominating Mr. Howell had made quite a tilt with The continued rose and withdrew Mr. Howell's name, and recommended Kern for Georgia. Withdrawal quickly followed from the support of McNeill, of Connecticut, leaving the Indiana candidate alone in the field. The withdrawal of the Connecticut candidate was accepted without a motion that the nomination of Kern be made by acclamation.

Conventions Adjourned.

The motion was carried with a deafening shout, and the great semihall broke into clamorous lamentation on the accomplishment of its work and the completion of the democratic national ticket.

The nomination was made at 4:23 and the convention adjourned without date.

TEXT OF PLATFORM.

Not the North, but the South, held out a hand to him, and the following were also added: William B. Bead, of Philadelphia; George Shay and Chauncey Depew, of New York; John Randolph Tucker, of Virginia, and John Robert Ould, of Richmond.

(Continued on Second Page.)

War Against Consumption.

All our citizens are responsive to the ravages of consumption, while play that claims so much of our time is often left to the women. Way's JH0 and Tar carat our soldiers—so as to be in no danger of consumption. Doctors risk their lives to save us.

BRYAN HEARS NEWS.

Returning That He Will Not Seek Second Term.

Mr. Bryan, LL.B., July 15.—The desperate struggle between the slow progress of the work of the Convention and the failure to make any headway in the platform, brought by the Convention through the endorsement of state candidates. Mr. Bryan said:

On the Fire Alarm.

The business was made on the floor and only later, the vote was taken by acclamation.

Platform Proceeding.

It was also reported that when the convention adjourned without a action, the delegates left the hall without waiting for a report.
THE LANTERN, PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1908.

It would be interesting to know the analysis of this water now.

F. S. WILKINS.

JEFFERSON DAVIS THE CONFEDERACY (Continued from last issue)

For the Investment were L. H. Chandler, General Attorney, and C. P. Lincoln, one of the most prominent attorneys in New Orleans, the other a good citizen of the city, and Mr. Davis was to have the whole fund of the state as his capital, and the islands and territory of the country as his possessions. He had nothing to do with the war, and was to have nothing to do with the war.

The President of the United States, under date of October 19, 1863, after the capture of New Orleans, wrote the following letter to the Secretary of War:

WASHINGTON, D.C., October 19, 1863.

Gentlemen,

I have the honor to inform you that the President of the Confederacy, Mr. Davis, has concluded a treaty with the United States, by which the United States cede the territory of the state of Mississippi to the President of the Confederacy, and that the President of the Confederacy, in consideration thereof, has agreed to pay the sum of 50,000 dollars to the President of the United States, and to make certain provisions for the protection of the property of the United States in the state of Mississippi.

A true copy of the said treaty is herewith transmitted for your inspection.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

Jefferson Davis.

 celular, 1. The President of the United States, in his message to Congress, as printed in the energy of the state of Mississippi, the state of Louisiana, and the state of Texas, says:

"The President has the honor to inform you that the state of Mississippi has concluded a treaty with the United States, by which the state of Mississippi cede one million dollars, and that the President of the United States, in consideration thereof, has agreed to p

Men's $6.00 Oxfords, Reduced to $4.50.
Men's $5.00 Oxfords, Reduced to $4.00.
Men's $4.00 Oxfords, Reduced to $3.25.
Men's $3.50 Oxfords, Reduced to $2.00.
Men's Straw Hats 33 1-3 Per Cent Discount.

Men's $2.00 Oxfords at $1.75
2.50 ... 1.99
3.00 ... 2.50
3.50 " 2.25
4.00 ... 3.00
4.50 " 2.75

WHITE CANVAS

3.00 at $2.50
3.50 ... 2.75
4.00 ... 3.00
4.50 " 2.75

GRAY CANVAS

2.50 at 2.00 sale price
3.00 ... 2.50
3.50 ... 2.50
4.00 ... 2.50
4.50 ... 2.50

Our Clean Sweep Sale
STARTS FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 17th

With the Most Extraordinary Values Ever Offered in the History of This Store---And We Are Famous for Our Unequaled Bargains.

YOU KNOW these sales! You wait for them with eager anticipation! You KNOW what they have been in the past! But this Summer's Clean Sweep Sale will eclipse all our previous efforts! The stocks are bigger, the qualities higher, the prices lower, the bargains more wonderful than ever before! This store never fails! It brings in an entirely new stock of goods to make this Clean Sweep Sale a success.

The Clothier

John W. Wix, The Clothier.
Local News

Don’t lost your chance to enter our Open House contest. This week is the last chance to enter our contest. The contest is open to anyone who enters their name and address in the drawing. The deadline is July 31, 1968.

Mrs. Mary Ann Smith, who has been a resident of this city for the past 20 years, was recently appointed to the board of directors of the local bank. She has been a member of the bank’s executive committee for the past five years.

Miss Anna Lee Williams, a native of this city, was recently appointed to the board of trustees of the local hospital. She has been a member of the hospital’s auxiliary for the past 15 years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, who have been residents of this city for the past 20 years, were recently married in a ceremony at the local courthouse. The couple has been living in the city for the past three years.

Mrs. Mary Ann Smith, who has been a resident of this city for the past 20 years, was recently appointed to the board of directors of the local bank. She has been a member of the bank’s executive committee for the past five years.

The Lanter.

THE LANTERN.

lenders on real estate to do business through us. Savings Department on Interest Bearing Certificate of Deposit. Act as loan agents for individuals to make a loan to safe. Will make it to the interest of borrowers and make no trouble or expense to lenders and loan guaranteed by security to investors.

C. C. Edwards,

K. Hall Ferguson,

Real Estate Loans. Savings Department on Interest Bearing Certificate of Deposit. Act as loan agents for individuals to make a loan to safe. Will make it to the interest of borrowers and make no trouble or expense to lenders and loan guaranteed by security to investors.

C. C. Edwards,

K. Hall Ferguson,

Real Estate Loans. Savings Department on Interest Bearing Certificate of Deposit. Act as loan agents for individuals to make a loan to safe. Will make it to the interest of borrowers and make no trouble or expense to lenders and loan guaranteed by security to investors.

C. C. Edwards,

K. Hall Ferguson,

Real Estate Loans. Savings Department on Interest Bearing Certificate of Deposit. Act as loan agents for individuals to make a loan to safe. Will make it to the interest of borrowers and make no trouble or expense to lenders and loan guaranteed by security to investors.

C. C. Edwards,

K. Hall Ferguson,

Real Estate Loans. Savings Department on Interest Bearing Certificate of Deposit. Act as loan agents for individuals to make a loan to safe. Will make it to the interest of borrowers and make no trouble or expense to lenders and loan guaranteed by security to investors.

C. C. Edwards,

K. Hall Ferguson,

Real Estate Loans. Savings Department on Interest Bearing Certificate of Deposit. Act as loan agents for individuals to make a loan to safe. Will make it to the interest of borrowers and make no trouble or expense to lenders and loan guaranteed by security to investors.
CHESTER WHOLESALE GROCERY COMPANY

Prevent Decay

Meade & Baker's

Oshkosh South Wash

Littlest Child's

Dr. H. S. Mead, S. J.

ORINDA

LEAVING FOR SYRIA

By tramp, using our own cots and tents.

John Frazer

Cables, Weapon, Rickshaw, Lancha. Telegraph, etc.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

ROYALL O. DEAVIS, PH. D.

Bugs & Buggies

CHESTER WHOLESALE GROCERY COMPANY

The South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, went into two years of bitter captivity, during which he was confined first in 1865 and again in 1867. During his second imprisonment, he was confined in the custody of Gen. W. T. Sherman, who held him in high esteem. In this second confinement, Davis was allowed to write letters and to receive visitors, but he was not allowed to leave the prison grounds except for brief periods. During his imprisonment, Davis wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released from prison in 1867, and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.";

N. Y., writes: "About four years ago Thos. J. Mackey, a judge in this state, started."

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.

"I believe in making the children our first consideration in the South," said Mr. Davis, "and that is one of the reasons why I have been able to carry so much of the country for the Union."

"This is the South's Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, who was captured by the Union forces in 1865 and held in captivity for two years. During his imprisonment, he wrote several books, including his autobiography, "The Confessions of a Confederate President." He was released in 1867 and returned to his home in Mississippi. He died in 1889.