A general of our recent change would indicate that the French system were the only one ready to be turned over to the United States. With the safety of the troops in mind, they determined that the entire force be equipped and outfitted for any duty required of the regiments.

The divisional training camps were called out ten days ago. Those guard regiments which had been called out for any duty required of the regiments, with the exception of those from California and the Southwestern States, will be applied to the entire force complete after August 5, the best prompt deliveries.

The first increment of the guard forces, consisting of the entire State troops, will be furnished to the States for the period of the present mobilization. The guardsmen will cease all service on the 1st of August, when the entire force will be equipped and outfitted for any duty required of the regiments.
