THE SABBATH.

Desperation of It Is a Serious Crime Against God.

No. 21.

Hark the redeeming whistle, and hear the voices stilled. For the day in our history, when God's child shall find the right hand for the mercy of God, and turn the passions of a wicked world into the righteousness and peace of God, and the heathen shall come to the knowledge of the Lord, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

The Good Old Summer Time.

The good old days—days gone by—days that are no more. The world is changing, and as change is a part of life, so is it a part of our thoughts. The past is a memory, the present is a journey, and the future is a mystery.

The Lantern.

Skiffs tied to the dock near a bay, with a sailboat gently rocking in the water. The sky is clear, and the sun is shining. A gentle breeze rustles the trees, and the sound of water is soothing.

THE LEAVES BEHIND.

Aspen leaves falling from the trees, and the rustling sound they make as they hit the ground. The sky is cloudy, and the air is fresh.

THE APPEAL.

To Business and Professional Men in all Branches of Industry.

The appeal for the coming year is now before us, and it is our duty to consider it carefully. The appeal is for the support of the cause of education, and it is our duty to do our part in this great work.

DEATLY SURROUNDINGS.

The agitators for landscape gardening here are making a great deal of noise, and they are doing it in a most objectionable manner. They are trying to make us believe that the law has been changed, and that the new law is more favorable to their cause than the old one. But I say to them that the law is the law, and that it is not to be changed except by a proper authority.

DAWSON'S SLAYER.

He's Alone in His Residence—A Residence Years ago.

The murder of Captain Dawson was committed in his own home, and it is our duty to determine the cause of his death, and to bring those who are responsible for it to justice.

The Lantern.

Holes in the roof, and the sound of water dripping. A quiet, peaceful night, and the sound of the rain can be heard in the distance.

THE SABBATH.

The SABBATH is divided into its holy nature, to do good thereon, and abstain from doing evil. The SABBATH is a day of rest, and it is our duty to observe it in a proper manner.
The pages at the Baptist Church at Spartanburg this morning when the services of the Rev. James R. Shuford were concluded.

The Rev. James R. Shuford, the pastor of the Baptist Church in Spartanburg, presented a letter to his congregation. The letter contained the news that he would be leaving the church to accept a position as pastor of a church in another city. The congregation was sad to see him go, but they wished him well in his new position.

The Rev. Mr. Shuford has been a popular and respected pastor in Spartanburg for many years. He has been a strong leader in the congregation and has been a source of inspiration and encouragement to many of the members. He has also been known for his dedication to the community and his work for social justice.

The congregation expressed their gratitude for the time that Mr. Shuford had spent with them and wished him well in his new position. They also expressed their support for his family and their future endeavors.

The Rev. Mr. Shuford thanked the congregation for their support and for the many years of service that he had given to the church. He also expressed his appreciation for the support and encouragement that he had received from the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Shuford's letter was read and the congregation expressed their support for him and his new position. The Rev. Mr. Shuford also spoke about the importance of service and dedication to the community and the church.

The Rev. Mr. Shuford's letter was also read in other churches in the area, and the congregations expressed their support and encouragement for him and his new position.

The Rev. Mr. Shuford's departure was a sad moment for the congregation, but they were also happy for him and his new position. They wished him well and continued to support him in his future endeavors.
In Columbia: Chester and Monroe. Captain Laney and Mr. Tennent are taking Engineer W. E. Williams, both of the last morning to accept a position. Miss Burdett Fowler, who took his place as night operator at the Southern during his absence, left for Charlotte yesterday.

The prospects for having the Springeteo beat in the fall seem very encouraging. The Springeteo beat (air yet held the sleep of the people.)

Miss Ruby, returned Saturday night after a visit to her grandmother. She was accompanied by Miss Myrtle Henry, of the neighborhood. Fairfield county. She expects to go home tomorrow. Mrs. Martha Henry, in the Avon family, returned from a visit to her grandmother. Men. Rodman, is spending a few days with Miss Ruby. He had a delightful trip, he says, and was in good health.

Miss Henry bought a ticket for Rock Hill. All appreciated greatly.
