PUBLISHED TO BODAYS AND FRIDAYS.

The pessimist no doubt rejoices in the relations of whole-handed robbery, and that after the clouds have passed away, the hard work which he did for what it has done is now doing again. We also invite you to bring a friend.

The candidates for state offices, after spending two weeks with other relations, have a note saying that Mr. J. E. Jackson, who was in charge of the cars, has been very successful in his management. He goes to take over the home of Mr. W. O. Gay, who has been very sick all week.

It makes no difference what you wish to buy—you, had best not part company with your good cash until you first see Klutzz Money Saving Bargains

Everything in the Summer line has been reduced in price in your big New Store. Mr. Klutzz has journeyed thru his tremendous stock of goods during the past week and slashed prices helterskelter. Out now is of small consequence. The summer goods must get out at any price. Soon the Full and Winter Goods will begin to arrive and we must have room to display them. Every single article in the establishment has been reduced. We firmly believe money in the bank is of far greater value to our big business than goods upon the shelves.

Those that have waited for gigantic reductions may now fall in line.

Remember, besides, no matter what in creation you may purchase from the Klutzz Store, if after you get home you discover for any reason you don't need or care for the goods, return them to us and we will gladly refund your money without the least grain of resentment.
