WASHINGTON LETTER.

From the Associated Correspondents.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—There is a difference of opinion in Washington as to whether the Republic of Panama or the United States should be responsible for the sixfth of the Isthmus of Panama. The Spanish-American War has left a legacy of good will between the two nations, and the United States is determined to make use of this goodwill to its advantage.

The United States, through the intervention of the United States Navy, has been successful in maintaining peace in the Isthmus of Panama. The United States has also been successful in maintaining peace in the Spanish-American War, and the United States is determined to make use of this goodwill to its advantage.

The United States is determined to make use of this goodwill to its advantage. The United States is determined to make use of this goodwill to its advantage. The United States is determined to make use of this goodwill to its advantage.

1. That South Carolina does not furnish her citizens an equal opportunity to do evil, South Carolina shall sell spirits to any and become drinkers.

2. That South Carolina does not furnish her citizens an equal opportunity to all her sons, except minors and drunkards, to buy and drink as a beverage, but simply that they may be aided into drunkenness.

3. That by so selling, the purpose is to buy and drink it as a beverage. The question raised, why should not they drink for health, when there is no drink to do it by, and then to sell it? Does South Carolina really have to make more money out of the poor.--

4. To drink and to buy whiskey as a beverage becomes to drink for health.

5. That South Carolina does not furnish to buy and drink liquor if the State should sell it.

6. That if they wish, South Caro-
