The Lantern, Chester S.C.- August 4, 1908

J T. Bigham
V. ~ csss to MWSge dumps. A farmer who of them may be carried on anything FLICS 'SPREAD DEADLY DISEASES. when there is sickness and thus can cldently enter. The fly Is responbelong to the family which breeds In ly and make the milk dangerous.

extremely small that a great number ing their kind. Each fly Is capable of fruit Jar and have soapsuds in the Jar.
A little syrup may be put on a cork hole where the point of the funnel to have about. Paper may be pasted with little trouble. It may be neces-time as more flies get Into the house.
When the die* get on the brushes at partment of Agriculture, gives a plan I cloth Bo^iulto netting Bay be tacked and have his house screened, so that We are told that ninety-nine of

AND WHEN FUES BREED.
THE LANTERN, PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.
J. T. BURBAGE, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, AUG. 4, 1863.

On the first page of this paper we have given a notice of an important event which to occur on Tuesday at the town hall.

We have just heard of the death of Mr. J. F. B. Hay, who was one of the most prominent citizens of the town.

Mr. Hay was a merchant of great ability, and his death will be felt as a loss to the community.

We extend our sympathies to the family of the deceased.

BAPTISM.

The baptism of a baby was performed recently at the Baptist church.

The parents of the child are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown.

We wish them many happy years of parenthood.

APPRECIATION.

The appreciation of the public is shown by the recent election of Mr. J. B. Brown as a member of the Board of Education.

Mr. Brown is a beloved and respected citizen, and his election is a well-deserved honor.

We congratulate him on his victory.

COTTON WEAVERS ELECTED.

The election of Mr. W. H. Williams as a member of the Board of Education was announced recently.

Mr. Williams is a progressive and energetic educator, and his election is a source of satisfaction to the community.

We extend our congratulations to him.

PLANTS.

The plants in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams were inspected recently.

They are in excellent condition, and are a source of pride to the owners.

We extend our congratulations to them.

JOINT SITTING OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A joint sitting of the Senate and House of Representatives was held recently.

Mr. S. H. Johnson, the President of the Senate, presided.

The business of the day was the consideration of the bill for the incorporation of the town.

We extend our congratulations to the members of the legislature.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The following announcements were made recently:

1. The town hall will be open for the public on Tuesday.
2. The school will be open for the public on Wednesday.
3. The library will be open for the public on Thursday.

We extend our congratulations to the government.

FOR CORONER.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR CONGRESS.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE.

We have received the following announcement:

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR.