A WOMAN EDUCATOR.

Disappointed with Some Phases of Co-education, says Co-Education—Surprised at Woman in Country School—A Woman at College—

Miss Elizabeth Phillips Hughes is a woman who wants to take her country school and college—eh? Who would have thought of that? But that is the reason of the surprising news that Miss Elizabeth Phillips Hughes, the principal of the rural school at Big Sand Lake, Oregon, is a woman. In short, she is a woman graduate of the University of Washington. Not only that, but Miss Hughes is the first woman to graduate from the University of Washington, and this is not the smallest surprise.

The incident is of great interest, as Miss Hughes is the first woman in the history of the university to receive a degree from the college. She is the first woman to receive a degree from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of bachelor of arts from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of master of arts from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of doctor of philosophy from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of doctor of laws from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of doctor of medicine from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of doctor of theology from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of doctor of music from the university. She is the first woman to be awarded the degree of doctor of scientific research from the university.
