8-10-1906

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- August 10, 1906

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1906

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1906/62

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1906 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact bramed@winthrop.edu.
The excessive rains in many sections of labor; the lateness of development; Is only 2-52 per cent., and the scarcity the entire cotton belt. Indicate that reports from its thousands of members, or even a large one, the Southern Cotton Belt of 1908-10 is likely to be superabundant.

The published population of 120,000,000 for the Southern cotton belt, the population of the South (exclusive of the border states) is about 30,000,000. The general area of the Southern cotton belt is about 450,000 square miles, and the population is about 75,000,000. The average of the crops of the last ten years is about 10,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last three years is about 12,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last five years is about 14,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last seven years is about 16,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last ten years is about 18,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last twenty years is about 20,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last thirty years is about 22,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last forty years is about 24,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last fifty years is about 26,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last sixty years is about 28,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last seventy years is about 30,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last eighty years is about 32,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last ninety years is about 34,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred years is about 36,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and ten years is about 38,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and twenty years is about 40,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and thirty years is about 42,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and forty years is about 44,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and fifty years is about 46,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and sixty years is about 48,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and seventy years is about 50,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and eighty years is about 52,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and ninety years is about 54,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred years is about 56,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and ten years is about 58,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and twenty years is about 60,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and thirty years is about 62,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and forty years is about 64,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and fifty years is about 66,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and sixty years is about 68,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and seventy years is about 70,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and eighty years is about 72,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and ninety years is about 74,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last three hundred years is about 76,000,000 bales per year.

The Southern Cotton Belt is about 450,000 square miles, and the population is about 75,000,000. The average of the crops of the last ten years is about 10,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last twenty years is about 12,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last thirty years is about 14,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last forty years is about 16,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last fifty years is about 18,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last sixty years is about 20,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last seventy years is about 22,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last eighty years is about 24,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last ninety years is about 26,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred years is about 28,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and ten years is about 30,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and twenty years is about 32,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and thirty years is about 34,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and forty years is about 36,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and fifty years is about 38,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and sixty years is about 40,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and seventy years is about 42,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last one hundred and eighty years is about 44,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred years is about 46,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and ten years is about 48,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and twenty years is about 50,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and thirty years is about 52,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and forty years is about 54,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and fifty years is about 56,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and sixty years is about 58,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and seventy years is about 60,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and eighty years is about 62,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last two hundred and ninety years is about 64,000,000 bales per year. The average of the crops of the last three hundred years is about 66,000,000 bales per year.
I operate my bin SKA-SIUK KK-

[lack of text]
We will CLOSE OUT TWO-PIECE SUITS
at the following prices for the cash

$18.50 Suits for $12.50
13.50 Suits for $8.75
10.00 Suits for $6.75

A few Linen Suits for Boys left, worth 75c, we will close for 45c

HAFNER BROTHERS

THE LANTERN.

TEARS OF RECONSTRUCTING.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, CASUE.

FRIDAY, AUG. 16, 1895.

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Marion Johnson, of Rock Hill, is visiting her brother, Mr. Albert Johnson.

Mr. Will Clay and Miss Eliza Jones are at Winnsboro this week.

W. E. Newcomb, Roy, and Marion spent Wednesday night in Lancaster.

Mrs. W. D. Boner, of Darlington, spent Friday night and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Barnett.

Kathleen Higgins is spending her warm weather at relatives in the Blackstock neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sherwood, of Rock Hill, are visiting her brother, Mr. W. H. Harris on Wylie street.

Mr. David Hamilton, who has been spending his vacation with friends in the city, is spending the week with his family in Houstonville.

Miss Nance McKeever, who spent a few days with friends in the city last month, is visiting her sister in Houstonville Wednesday.

Mr. J. D. Baskin, of the grocery store, is spending his vacation with relatives in the city.

Mr. H. E. Henderson and niece, of Houstonville, spent last week at her father's, Mr. W. T. Leath in Rock Hill.

Mr. C. R. Bowers, head clerk, in the building and loan department, is taking a short rest.

J. E. Long has removed his office at Lancaster to the U.S. Bank building.

Mr. C. B. James, head clerk, in the building and loan department, is taking a short rest here.

Miss Maud McFadden of Lapsy Turner was visiting her sister in Winnsboro.

Mr. Jones S Company's store, is spending his vacation this week with friends in the city.

Miss Florence Jamison, of Charlotte, from Newberry, where she has been of giving up teaching, and in case he does not expect to return here.

Mr. Irvin Gilstrap of the Lancaster office, has returned here after a short vacation, but is not for less.

Miss Mary Hingston left yesterday for Rock Hill, to spend a few days at her aunt's, Miss Z. K. Higginbotham at the Cliffside.

Mr. John Simpson and daughter, of Darlington, were among the visitors in the city today.

Miss Libby Low, of Missoula, is visiting her sister, Miss Laura, lately of Rock Hill, at Houstonville.

Mr. E. T. Pendergrast, who has here for the purpose of Mr. W. A. Hain in the next two weeks, has returned to Hopkinsville.

Mr. J. F. Fizgibb and his wife, of Greenbriar, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in the city.

Mr. H. E. Caviness of all came to the city last Friday after spending a few days last week at his father's, Mr. D. H. Caviness in York City.

Miss Mary Hingston, who is attending school at Winnsboro, returned to her home here Sunday afternoon to spend a month.

Mr. W. H. Anderson left Tuesday for his home in Houstonville, where he has been spending a few weeks.

Miss Anna M. Lipscomb, of Greenville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. McAdams, all last month, returned to her home after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Meaders on Tuesday.

Mr. Horace Calkins has accepted a similar position in the insurance company.

Miss Nina Rose, private director in the Confederate Soldiers' Home, returned last week from Tuscaloosa.

Two young men, W. C. and T. A. Moseley, who have been spending the summer at the State's Agricultural College, returned to their home in the city by train Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mary Hingston, who is attending school at Winnsboro, returned to her home here Sunday afternoon to spend a month.

Mrs. J. H. Westfall and niece, have been spending the summer at the State's Agricultural College, returned to their home in the city by train Saturday afternoon.

Mr. L. A. Sherwood, left for his home in the Chester store, who are advertising themselves in the newspapers, returned to his home in York City.

Miss M. S. M. Jones, of Allendale, arrived here last month, stayed three weeks and left.

Mr. W. H. Anderson left Tuesday for his home in Houstonville, where he has been spending a few weeks.

Miss Anna M. Lipscomb, of Greenville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. McAdams, all last month, returned to her home after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Meaders on Tuesday.

Mr. Horace Calkins has accepted a similar position in the insurance company.

Miss Nina Rose, private director in the Confederate Soldiers' Home, returned last week from Tuscaloosa.

Two young men, W. C. and T. A. Moseley, who have been spending the summer at the State's Agricultural College, returned to their home in the city by train Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mary Hingston, who is attending school at Winnsboro, returned to her home here Sunday afternoon to spend a month.

Mrs. J. H. Westfall and niece, have been spending the summer at the State's Agricultural College, returned to their home in the city by train Saturday afternoon.

A Fine Farm.

We urge the Ladies to visit our Embroidery Department. It has been recently filled with many new patterns. On every piece on exhibition we can offer you a regular Klutsz saving.
Seaboard
Air Line Railway
ANNUAL SEASHORE EXCURSION
AUGUST 15TH, 1906
TO OLD POINT COMFORT
Ocean View & Virginia Beach, Va.
AND
Wrightsville Beach and Morehead City, N. C.

RATES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Abingdon, S. C.</td>
<td>$10.50</td>
<td>$6.50</td>
<td>$6.50</td>
<td>$10.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cambridge, S. C.</td>
<td>8.30</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>8.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Centerville, S. C.</td>
<td>8.30</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>8.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clinton, S. C.</td>
<td>8.30</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>8.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Greenwood, S. C.</td>
<td>8.30</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>5.50</td>
<td>8.30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Tickets will be sold for all regular trains on August 15th, and will be good return on all regular trains as well as the excursion trains.

The Excursion fare includes one first-class ticket to the destination, and return excursion ticket.

E. A. Crawford.

Notice
We wish to have a few goods left from our very successful excursion to Ocean View and Virginia Beach, Va., and Wrightsville Beach and Morehead City, N. C., for use as souvenirs.

These goods are new, and have been used once only.

The prices are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Price</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Silk umbrella</td>
<td>$0.25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Silk pillow</td>
<td>$0.50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These goods are in excellent condition, and will make fine souvenirs.