9-3-1901

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- September 3, 1901

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1901

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1901 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.
JYiend: ' . . .

16, charged with $10 personal prop-art building over which Mr. Town-books are closed, and an execution.  The Greenwood," is again given, but is again asked. The answer, "in make a return to the auditor. Here property and poll. But it happens sometimes issued on parties al-modern American paintings and

It is expected that it will be filled make this return, this question is Early Risers remove the cause of

Sent out some twenty-five children

The present office of the art direc-

Capt. Forsyth left for St. Louis to-

That any one should ques-

Washington said Sampson, and

"Schley was among the officers

Sampson was a captain and the command above his seniors is re-fact -that a junior man. was placed in or any torch. It's an uncanny place foot in length, and of an elliptical

The dust lies at least two

feet in length, and of an elliptical

lar for 30 feet or more. When you

out. They would rush like a

Ran Away.

Idaho women have full suffrage, in-the oak of resistance

trad, eastern and New England will not be surprising— if the ballot

make up the time, and it was un-

No. 17, charged with pull. It is impossible to decide how many of the

this is the same person in both of the state invested about

which the state invested about

from a visit to Glass and Landis

Mr. E. L. Bate's, who devotes

Mr. Lati-

and he is on his way to the

and the "Dog"

in August

has been traced back for ten

In Montana women may vote on

In Kansas— there is full municipal

Already the small edge of the

The winged creatures fly so thickly

The dust lies at least two

feet in length, and of an elliptical

lar for 30 feet or more. When you

out. They would rush like a

in August

The American average, says Mr.

Current Business in Everybody's

The official census shows that in height, with a chest girth of thir-

Henry Gannett in

is a man five feet eight inches

of the state invested about

which the state invested about

from a visit to Glass and Landis

Mr. E. L. Bate's, who devotes

Mr. Lati-

and he is on his way to the

and the "Dog"

in August

has been traced back for ten

In Montana women may vote on

In Kansas— there is full municipal

Already the small edge of the

The winged creatures fly so thickly

The dust lies at least two

feet in length, and of an elliptical

lar for 30 feet or more. When you

out. They would rush like a
A Viewpoint

All politicians are funny when they try to put on the present appearance. It is Season Tom. Both the newspapers and the avengers wouldn't let the donkey
dehis any hold, but kept on insisting
that he was in the center of some thing or the other. His present worth, it seems, is that he has had a curiosity. Clemson—college—that—has made always to "a light in the west." The men allied with me, the state

feathers; the "light in the west"

about the situation to know that he

the prosecution to introduce any more tests, it is powerfully unsuitable

to secure a settlement of this ques-

friend David Magill, of Greenwood,

that year by an overwhelming

papers quoted Senator Tillman's

dignifiedvor embarrassing situation

them into competition with white

ing on the western

... and if you wish to buy goods right,

Do the Business.

The Theiling Co.

A Viewpoint

All politicians are funny when they try to put on the present appearance. It is Season Tom. Both the newspapers and the
avengers wouldn't let the donkey
dehis any hold, but kept on insisting
that he was in the center of some thing or the other. His present
worth, it seems, is that he has had a curiosity. Clemson—college—that—has

made always to "a light in the

west." The men allied with me, the state

feathers; the "light in the west"

about the situation to know that he

the prosecution to introduce any

more tests, it is powerfully unsuitable

to secure a settlement of this ques-

friend David Magill, of Greenwood,

that year by an overwhelming

papers quoted Senator Tillman's

dignifiedvor embarrassing situation

them into competition with white

ing on the western

... and if you wish to buy goods right,

Do the Business.

The Theiling Co.
Job Printing—We have all the new type-faced machines for up-to-date work on very short notice. Call or write for estimates. Call first—try us.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. K. Ross has gone to Gastonia to visit.

Mr. S. T. Patrick, of McCollsville, has returned from a business trip to New York.

The Rev. C. J. Streight and his family have returned today, and will remain until next Monday.

Mr. J. G. Carter and family have returned from Virginia, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. S. W. Jones left Saturday morning for New York with his fall and winter stock of goods.

Mrs. Wylie, of Chester, is now recuperating from an attack of yellow fever, which she had last week.

Mr. R. Brandt has secured the services of Miss Marie Scott, of Kannapolis, as secretary.

Mrs. W. H. Newbold and son returned to Augusta Friday night, and are now on their way to New York.

Mr. R. Brandt has secured the services of Miss Marie Scott, of Kannapolis, as secretary.

Mr. Geo. W. Boyd, of Cornwell and Co., is now in New York, meeting friends.

The little Nichols boys have the measles, and are now in bed.

Mr. Joe Frazer has had one quite painful attack of appendicitis, which he has just undergone.

Miss Ann Leekle will open her millinery business in the new building, 208 South Main Street, at 11.05 a.m. arriving at Charlotte Saturday after a month's visit in the family of Mr. E. L. Wood, on Saturday night.

The popular designer and milliner.

The Palmetto

Chester Special for Saturday

Cotton Office

Cotton Office

1st of December, and the o' In-

of Every Description

R. BRANDT'S

Annual Opening

Monday, Sept. 16th

WHY? OWEN'S BREAD AND ROLLS ARE UN-X-L'D.

BECAUSE—He uses pure high-grade flour.

BECAUSE—It is regular end-up high.

BECAUSE—Every customer who wants it again.

J. A. OWEN.

1901 Fall and Winter 1902

Our Mr J S COLVIN

is now in New York buying our Fall and Winter Stock of Dry Goods, Notions, etc. We have again engaged the services of MISS CHAPMAN, The Popular Designer and Milliner.

We will also have Miss REESE GRAHAM as her assistant. Our plan in this department should secure to our patrons the very best goods. Miss Chapman is now in the Noticet Markets purchasing our FALL and WINTER STOCK of MILLINERY and Millinery Trim-

Look out for her return.

Little Girls!

If you haven't got your ticket for the CLIPPING CONTEST, get it at once.

ONLY TODAY AND WEDNESDAY

then, if you haven't one, you won't be "in it."

COUNTING BEGINS PROMPTLY AT 10 O'CLOCK

Friday, September 5th.

Everybody Invited.

Music, Ice Cream and Cake Free to All Contestants

A. B. NICHOLSON

PHONE 590.
Bargains

Jos. Wylie & Co.

We have finished taking Stock, and in going through—we find we have a considerable stock of WASHED GOS. Etc., and we have put several lots on the Bargain Counter. Just read them:

Bargain No. 1. — Green Leaves and Clear, w. 5 & 6 cts., each, 5 for 20 cts.

Bargain No. 2. — Cheltenham. Lt. 10 lbs. each, 10 for 25 cts.

Bargain No. 3. — Beautiful Assortment of Fancy Pears, cheap at 50, 100 for $1, &c.

Bargain No. 6. — Big Bag of Ladies' Underwear for 20 cts. per barrel, worth $6.

Bargain No. 7. — Large Lot of Laces at 50 cts. per doz.

Bargain No. 8. — Spool Thread, White at 40 cts.

Bargain No. 9. — Men's and Boys' Dresses at 40 cts. per doz.

Bargain No. 10. — Fine Silk Hamster at 2.00 each, worth $2.

Bargain No. 11. — Very attractive assortment of Thread and Lace, worth $10. each, now offered at $3. each.

Bargain No. 12. — Lot of Old Books, worth $100,000, now offered at $1. each.

Call at once if you need good articles at a very cheap price.

Joseph Wylie and Company.

For Honest Goods and Low Prices Go to

LINDSAY & SON,

Dealers in

Heavy Groceries, Hardware

and

PLANTATION SUPPLIES

IN THE VALLEY

S. M. JONES & CO.

Great Reductions!

2,000 Yards Colored Piques at 15c., will be sold while they last at 8c.

5,000 Yards 15c. Muslins will be sold while it lasts at 8c.

10,000 Yards of Muslin at 10c. will be closed out at 8c.

S. M. JONES & CO., Chester, S.C.