THE TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR.

The post of Township Supervisor is currently unoccupied in the town of Chester. If not occupied, in the Township section that we ran above, with some difficulty, the position to which it is appropriate, it will be filled at the next election.

The next election will be held in August or September, and at that time the Township Supervisor will be elected and sworn in. The position is a paid one, and the salary is determined by the Township Committee, which consists of the Township Supervisor, the Township Clerk, and the Township Treasurer.

The duties of the Township Supervisor include the administration of the Township affairs, the preparation of the Township budget, and the supervision of the Township roads and public works.

JAMES B. STERNBERG,
Chairman Township Committee.
