which begins Tuesday.

He is one of the leading attorneys of Tennessee who gave his life for his country. Mr. Stringfellow was a student of the University of North Carolina, and was made a member of the state for distinguished service in the Mexican war as a lieutenant. The accident occurred near Sharon, Miss., and the body was taken to the home of the family. Mrs. Kennedy was a consecrated mother, and the loss is deeply felt by her family.

The News-Monitor man attended the reading of the will which was made on account of the illness of the last will and testament. Mr. Stringfellow was a lawyer by profession, and was much beloved by his neighbors. He was a faithful and loyal citizen, and was always ready to do his duty.

Not poverty, but learned talk, not high sounding big braggling lying words; no, none such need ever be used by Kluttz' Big New Store, because Kluttz has all these years done a large and growing bigger and bigger business by fair and square treatment to everybody, and allowing his ever increasing customers better bargains than they could possibly get at other Chester stores.

Mr. S. M. Jones feels and knows for a fact that they owe it all to Kluttz for putting high prices down and keeping high prices down on thousands of other everyday things that the people want and must have.
