MANY INVOLVED IN WHITE SLAVE TRADE

Two Rich Men Arrested for Alleged Slave Trade

Two white men were arrested this morning by the federal agents for alleged slave trade. The two men, identified as John Smith and Robert Johnson, were arrested in the early hours of this morning after a lengthy investigation by the federal agents.

The men were found to be in possession of several documents and records related to the alleged slave trade. The agents believe that the men were involved in a widespread scheme to traffic in human beings.

The two men have been charged with numerous counts of human trafficking and are currently awaiting trial. The federal agents are continuing their investigation into the matter and expect to make additional arrests in the near future.
