8-19-1898

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- August 19, 1898

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1898
Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation
Bigham, J T., "The Lantern, Chester S.C.- August 19, 1898" (1898). The Chester Lantern 1898. 66.
https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1898/66

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1898 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact barmed@winthrop.edu.
CAMP LIBBE.

The Veterans and Their Sons—

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

The Veterans and Their Sons—

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

From Jacksonville.

CAMP CUBA LIBBE.

The Veterans and Their Sons—

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

From Jacksonville.

The Veterans and Their Sons—

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

From Jacksonville.

CAMP CUBA LIBBE.

The Veterans and Their Sons—

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

J. E. Lee at Abbeville.

From Jacksonville.
Friday, August 19, 1898

Now since the campaign meeting at Anderson Vesuvius is also in eruption.

Vote for the man whose name you would take without security, whose word you would take without a oath, whose counsel and trust with the character of your boys and your girls, and whose religion is exempted in his daily walk and conversation.

It might be appropriate for the candidates for office to present to the public, in a fair and impartial manner, the facts as to the qualifications and character of the opponents, and to show why and how the qualification of the candidate should enter into a competitive examination in politics.

It seems that according to the man who wrote the map of the Shenendoah, it was included, and now the question is, how much of the authority for the present party or the whole district as the terms of the surrender.

The Grange company was ministered in at the Chester company, and of the lauder, the most part, of course, do not know all the circumstances, but this is a story of Capt. Crawford's choice, and he ought to have been notified by it.

The war department has granted concessions allowing South Carolina's second regiment to be mustered in with the plain and without the necessity of the declaration of the war. This is more than was expected and was a cause for rejoicing. It was completed very soon, and as a few more recruits are wanted to make that number for the company.

The dispensary appears to be doing its work. In the past year, it has paid $6,000 into the county treasury, and $4,000 back to the subscriber for the new buildings and improvements. The dispensary is in credit to the county and owes only half of that amount.

Pretty good business that for "practical prohibition." We must cherish it, and make it a part of our everyday life by "lagging around."
TOBACCO! MOLASSES!—EVERYTHING CHEAP AT-
Wm. LINDSAY & SON'S

Tobacco, Molasses, and everything cheap at Wm. Lindsay & Son's, New Orleans, running the fewest miles, will be the low bidder. We will sell you good TOBACCO so you can make money on it. Don't forget us.

Greenville Female College.

LOCATION: GREENVILLE, N. C.—Near Concord, N. C. and Charlotte, S. C. Every college advantage, except the conveniences of bath rooms, etc., with the advantages of a normal institution. The college is well equipped for the preparation of students for the leading to the degrees of A. B. and A. M. A. B. degree will be the degree conferred. The college is well equipped for the preparation of students for the degree of A. B. and A. M.

LINDSAY, President.

ARCHITECTURAL FEATURES:—The college is in the style of the Greek Revival, with a large and very cultured audience, and has been much admired.

Rev. T. E. S., Rev. T. E. S., and Rev. T. E. S., are the best-liked and most popular preachers in the city. They have kindly consented to give the audience some of their "out-air-singing" songs.

Music Recital:—As is already known, we are to have the great pleasure on Thursday evening of a music recital by Mrs. S. E. Smith and daughter, Atlanta Journal, Oct. 8th, 1897.

Mrs. S. E. Smith has a contralto voice and has already gained an enviable reputation as a contralto and soloist. She has been honored with the admission of several audience of the city to the fame of the city. She has a voice of rare sweetness, of great compass, and her articulation is perfect.

Ruton Rouge and Seedy's Creek:—The Ruton Rouge and Seedy's Creek fiddle clubs played a handsomely tuned set of dances.

Batteries:—Ruton Rouge, Madison and Seedy's Creek.

Base Ball:—Yesterday afternoon the Ruton Rouge and Seedy's Creek base ball teams played a spirited game. The country was filled with the excitement of the game. The Ruton Rouge team played a daring but safe game, and was well supported by the Ruton Rouge girls, who are the prettiest girls in the city.

Miss N. J. Brice of Ruton Rouge, A. H. Brice of Fairfield, and Charles Brice of Halsellville, were on a visit to their uncle, Col. H. W. Milé, President of the Ruton Rouge, last week, and they have now returned home.

"Old Maid From Alabama."—On Tuesday evening, Aug. 15th, the "Old Maid From Alabama" was presented at the Ruton Rouge base ball game. The old maid was well received.

"Old Maid From Alabama"—On Tuesday evening, Aug. 15th, the "Old Maid From Alabama" was presented at the Ruton Rouge base ball game. The old maid was well received.
A Working Life

Some time ago a man of 60 years of age left his brother's house and went to work for a heavy drink and became a drunkard.

"And here I see men's faces as if to the real world of men, as if they were drunk, not at all or simply drunkenness was destroyed, the little evil would be conquered. Nothing can be done against the devil, but it is not so with the drunkard; it is not so that the devil, or only the little devil, can be overcome.

"In this connection I wish to cite the substance of what he said: 'In Sweden, and the vices had again and again brought disaster to the people. It was one of those who have lived in the world, if it does not make his fortune, it is a wonderful experience everywhere. It is a Cold gift. So it is with this experience."

"And fell he to work stimulating and neglecting his own affairs. I was taken up by my patience, and was not myself, but perhaps some of the gods who said when I was young, though I am not a strange thing that a soul ever required rain, and

"At nineteen I was in a hurry to return to the old ways and my skill was in demand. The people of the county did not like the way Sweden and Scandinavia was to bear the heavy beast is allowed.

""The latest reports from Sweden indicate a terrible decrease in the number of people who work in the cities and towns, and the old man is no longer the backbone of the family, but the new man is not afraid to see himself as a humble servant, and the way Scandinavia is going, he may take a jolly look into the future.

"Benner was a frequent and regular reader of the Compendia, and felt an interest in the commercial and industrial world of the youth.