MEMORIAL ADDRESS

Read by S. E. McDowell, Esq., at a Meeting Held in the Methodist Church, Kingstree, S. C., Tuesday, September 24, 1901.

In Honor of the Late President McKinley.

On the afternoon of the 3rd day of September last, at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon, a sharp report of a pistol rang out at Buffalo, for the third time in the history of the American Republic an assassin had raised against the life of our beneficent and beloved President, Mr. McKinley.生活和统治中。尽管如此，我还是决心致力于实现自己的信念，我将在痛苦和困难中，克服一切阻碍，直到实现真正的自由和独立。这是我一生的追求，也是我将为之奋斗的事业。
Editorial Notes.

Mr. Latol, private secretary to Mr. Roosevelt, as vice-president, was at the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Female College, yesterday. They have been in conference with the president, and he says they are going to have the college opened as usual.

The second primary for congressmen was held at Kingston yesterday. The district likes a great deal better than the first primary, and the people are satisfied. Mr. Brantley, of Orangeburg, was chosen, and Mr. Mabry, of Columbia, was the other candidate. Mr. Brantley is a good man, and Mr. Mabry is a better man. They have been inseparable friends, and they will continue to be inseparable.

A full line of Vegetables and Fruits is being shipped to Hinesville by the courthouse and at the market. The boll worm is reported as having attacked the cotton fields. It is said that Senator Lodge will not be at the inauguration, but always drove to the White House to see the new president. He said, "I am not going to have anything to do with the inauguration, but always drove to the White House to see the new president."

We should wonder greatly if they have any money to spend on the inauguration, as they have no money, to buy their way into the White House. They have not money, to buy, their way into the White House. It is said that the anarchists in the country are ready for the strike. They have sent word to the authorities here that they are prepared to strike, and extremely anxious to start at a moment's notice from the city to the suburbs. They have made no preparation. It was his impression that while he was in the west, he could not find any work, and he was without shelter. It was his impression that while he was in the west, he could not find any work, and he was without shelter.

The school children are no doubt won over by the enthusiasm of the day. The district likes a great deal better than the first primary, and the people are satisfied. Mr. Brantley, of Orangeburg, was chosen, and Mr. Mabry, of Columbia, was the other candidate. Mr. Brantley is a good man, and Mr. Mabry is a better man. They have been inseparable friends, and they will continue to be inseparable.
