J T. Bigham
In Memoriam.

Our Miss Annie has gone away from us all. She left us in the bright summer days, left in the midst of life, and this, as if she would have been the last to go. She was the toast of the town, the center of attraction, and her absence is felt in every corner of this city and the life of town is in a state of mourning. She was the life and soul of the community.

Our Miss Annie was a true friend to all. She was kind to the poor and humble, and her kindness was returned by all. She was a true friend to all, and her absence is felt in every corner of this city.

Having had so many inquiries for the famous OWENSBORO WAGONS and becoming convinced that it is the best wagon on the market we have determined to handle these wagons exclusively in the future. We have just received a new shipment of consisting of all sizes, low and high wheels, broad and narrow tires, and offered on easy terms for cash and on credit. We have positive instructions from the factory to

to be as good as any wagon made on earth. Anyone wanting a first-class wagon will have trouble and money by calling on us.

The following testimonials speak for themselves. We would publish more but cannot for want of space:

About six years ago I purchased an OWENSBORO wagon and have had it in constant use ever since. Last summer the contractor asked permission to use this 3 1/2 inch wagon for hauling the larger bales, weighing 1000 pounds each, for the work water plant. Once of these was loaded safely without any injury whatever, the distance being about one mile. While hauling the last one the brake broke; I had this brake replaced and am using this wagon to do my harvesting work, and today there is not a broken piece in it. I consider the OWENSBORO to be the very best made.

Chester, S. C., Aug. 23, 1900.
W. H. Branch.

I have owned an OWENSBORO wagon seven years and never had five cents worth of work done on it during this time, nor ever had to put the tires on. I consider the best wagon I ever bought and expect to use it for years to come.
