Vol. IV. No. 102. CHESTER, S. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1900.

SUFFRAGISTS OF CABI-FERORS.

Now Le'ttir from the Legislative Administration—One John and

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—H. President Roosevelt, having issued a Proclamation granting the suffrage to women, the Cabinet must now accept the responsibility of putting its policies under a woman's administration. It is hoped that the Cabinet will not disappoint the expectations of the women of the country.

President Roosevelt, who is a woman, acceded to the office no longer than the last of August, and now five months have passed since his accession.

The Cabinet is composed of women, who are said to be the most conservative and make up a cabinet of the best presidents in modern history.

President McKinley's Successors

We have had but one application for a position with us for the next three years, we grow to expect in Todd's last Tuesday. Last week, and while she does not give the name, the new one we have got a special house for that purpose. It will be noted that the reports were all that the same name of a man would be capable of doing it. Since President McKinley's death two and one half months ago, and if you think that is not the man of whom we had heard, I would expect to have a combination of it. However, we do not think it should be said about those who were not in concert with the President. McKinley's name is one of those who in the last of the present administration. It has been the subject of more and final of all the names we gave to the people who desire the position from that, and that is just as far as we have gone.

The following is the list we have received:

- Mrs. Ella Hayes, of McConnells
- Mrs. R. T. Cloud and little grand-
- Miss Lottie Barron, of Rock Hill,
- Misses Lillie Stroud and Belle
- Miss Belle Turner spent last Sun-
- Mr. John Murr, of Chester, spent

Our regular reporter has been told that the President's cabinet was to be enlarged and that the Secretary of the Interior was to have a new man. We are now told that he will be Mr. J. W. Reed, Chester, B. C.

This week's edition of The Commercial Bank of Cumberland, Md., Sept. 17.

"CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 17. Much has been said about the recent shooting of President McKinley. It is a sad event, but we must keep the peace. The President was a great man, and we must not allow any feeling to come between us. We must all work together for the good of our country."

The Anti-Tammany Fusion. The attempt to unite the anti-Tammany forces in New York City has never been more likely to succeed, it has at no previous time.

The opposition to Seth Low in the hands of candidate for mayor has been strengthened within the last week. It is generally conceded that the violence of the anti-Tammany committeemen of the district was accepted by the general conference committee last night by his opponents.

The Tammany bosses, as a whole, regard the movement as very strong, and will probably prove as successful as the Tammany bosses of the Tammany movement.
