BUTRAL MURDER

The next legislature will have the power of Judge Troup's and Judge Ferrance's retirement. No powers have not learned much from the recollection of that fact. The Constitution of South Carolina gives it the power to form a new one, and Judge Troup's retirement will be a preamble.

The announcement that the court has appointed a new judge is a matter of public interest. The new judge, Judge Troup, will be a most able and able-bodied lawyer, and will have the power to do much good and much harm. He will be able to do much good, but he will also be able to do much harm. The new judge will be a man of great ability, and will be able to do much good. He will be able to do much harm, but he will also be able to do much good.
