Klutitz is back from New York City, where he bought the largest display of Fall and Winter goods he has ever purchased. And the car loads that are being brought to us daily are surely loading this store with a wealth of beauty indescribable. To appreciate its beauty you must make a little pilgrimage here yourself. The wide complaint of goods being higher than this Fall than ever before does not prevail in this store.

Klutitz spent the hardest working month of all his life in the markets looking for bargains. So don't you part company with your good cash until you see the bargains in Klutitz' BIG NEW STORE. It's worth a trip to enable the great mass of our loyal customers to save money on their purchases this Fall, and we are so much pleased with the trip that we can, with a clear conscience, but your customers the lowest priced, superior quality of Fall merchandise this City has ever witnessed.

A meeting was held May 30, at which time new officers were elected. At that time the following were elected: President, C. A. Griswold; Secretary, H. W. Jones; and Treasurer, H. G. Martin.

Mr. Griswold is now serving his second term as president, and is doing a splendid job. The club has been making progress in recent years, and is now one of the largest in the city.

The club has a fine stock of books, and is always ready to lend them to anyone who is interested in literature. The club is open to all men, and is always ready to accept new members.
