An Explanation

What the Merchants Say About Chester Wholesale Grocery Company.

They sell goods so cheap; they are continually raising the cotton seed market; they are now hulking the cotton market; cutting the price on wagons and bugels...

This may all be true, but we cannot see how this will hurt our customers or their customers, and we are not running a hospital for wounded merchants.

We will sell bagging and ties cheaper than any one in Chester. We carry almost everything. We want every buyer to investigate these charges and if true, save money on what you buy. We will guarantee everything as represented or money refunded.

Chester, S. C., Friday, October 18, 1907.

The groom is a prominent young citizen of Chester, of pleasant quality, and the good wishes of many friends will go with him. This wedding has been much more interest in the social circles of Union, and many at this time of the year were here for the occasion. Among them were, Misses Bertha and Eliza Anderson; of Anderson; Mrs. A. W. Kluttz, Mrs.
Belle Sullivan, Mr. A. W. B. Sample, and Miss Lois Sample, Mr. and Mrs.
Paul Hartman, and Mr. M. A. Carpenter, Mrs. Lawrence Dwyer, of Laurens, Mrs. J. Whitehead and Miss Ella, of Elberton; the housekeeper, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn and lady, of Rock Hill, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs.
W. B. Beasley, parents of the bride. —

Chester Bay Weds Union Girl-Of cheer and convention was the scene of the wedding of Miss Stella and Chester Dent, at the methodist church. The bride, the former of many friends, who will regret when she sees her new home.

The bride’s dress was an exceptional creation of white dana satin, princess style, on train, trimmed with beads and a wide lace veil, of satin and orange blossoms, and the carried a white bridesmaid on her left, Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, who had been a handmaiden of the bride's, and Miss Emma Oliver, of Elberton, Ga., who had been a handmaiden of the bride's.

Just as the bride entered the area of her dance of honor, Mr. C.
S. Sullivan, of Anderson, the groom traveled to the church, with Mr. A. Smithers, of Saluda, and Mr. C. S. Sullivan, of Elberton, Ga., the attendants, the bridesmaids and the maid of honor, Miss Emma Oliver, entered the church. She was hidden from view, but to her friends, the bride's beauty was obvious.

After the short and simple ceremony, which was conducted by Rev.
W. E. Catham, the party left the church at the stately Chalmers’ Lorentey’s wedding March.
