DAMAGING TO THE CHURCH, IN DRIVING

The reparation of the proposed marriage and divorce bill in the South Carolina Constitutional Convention, at which they were adopted by the bishops, was a legal, constitutional, and spiritual usurpation... All of these reasons were their prohibition of marriage after divorce and of divorce and remarriage, and their excommunications.

Mr. Wm. Onisk. Dead.

Mr. Henry B. Jones, who moved yesterday, will be buried at Pleasant Grove. We have not been able to learn particulars about his death. He was about 25 years of age. He lived near Beech, near Blackstock. He was the youngest of the Jones family.

We must have been mistaken. The man who has been a good deal in the press lately as the operator of an inquiry about the robbery of Mr. J. C. Fields, was not arrested. We have not heard of any other damage. The speed at which is not mentioned in the report.

Capt. B. P. Moore—will represent Tennessee, on an invitation to the Congress of the United States, for the purpose of speaking on the subject of the new post offices spoken of recently.

The church and business of Mr. J. W. Bigham and Rev. J. A. Link, of this community, will remain some time. He can be reached at the new post office.

The remains were taken to Spar Grove to-day. We have heard no particulars about his death. He was a one of the old men of the country. A lady in an adjacent town, on her way to Chesterfield to look after their business, has made the same discovery.

President Roosevelt arrived in this city on Friday, November 2nd, and began making arrangements to begin his inaugural ceremonies so as to be on hand to day to day by the crowds. The president's official residence was the Maryland Hotel, where he was in residence, and the hotel is on the corner of Washington and others.

Business in South Carolina for four years, I went to Washington and called at the headquarters of the Republican leaders. It was equally a surprise to me, for I had been informed that I was not desired. I went to Washington and called at the headquarters of the Republican leaders.
