The election of Mr. D. Dixon created interest of the state in the same, the merit of the candidates, and the spirit of the community in the same, all had a strong influence in the outcome of the election.

SOUR STOMACH

TWO HISTORICAL WEDDINGS.

Barbara of John Loven and Scully—Barbara of John Smith and Frances "Polly" Perkins.

In this City there are two loan of marriages which are especially interesting.

One is the marriage of John Loven and Barbara of the Loven family. They were one of the original settlers of the area and were married on the 8th of September, 1852. The ceremony took place in the old church at the corner of Main Street and Market Street.

The other wedding is that of John Smith and "Polly" Perkins, which took place on the 15th of October, 1853. It was a simple ceremony, taking place in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom were both younger than 21 years of age, and the marriage was opposed by the family of the bride. However, the couple were determined to be together, and they eloped to get married.

After the ceremony, the newly weds took a day trip to Columbia, Missouri, to celebrate their marriage.

The couple lived together for many years, and had several children.

They are still together today, and are proud of their enduring love and commitment to each other.

Not long after the wedding, the couple decided to start a business together. They opened a general store, which became very successful.

The couple also became involved in local politics, and were known for their community service.

In 1863, the couple decided to move to a new location, where they could start fresh.

They purchased land in Kansas City, and began to build a new home. They worked hard, and the new house was complete in 1865.

The couple lived in their new home for many years, and remained very happy together.

The couple passed away in the early 1900s, but they are still remembered today for their love and dedication to each other.

The couple's legacy lives on,
and their love continues to inspire
those who know them.

The new couple was so happy together, and their marriage was a blessing to all who knew them.

The couple continued to live together for many years, and their love remained strong.

Today, the couple is still remembered for their love and dedication to each other.

The couple's legacy lives on,
and their love continues to inspire
those who know them.

The couple's love continues to be an example for all who know them.
