11-26-1901

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- November 26, 1901

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1901

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1901/87

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1901 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact bramed@winthrop.edu.
The Head He Glibly In Fruitful

An Impressive Day

The administration of President McKinley...
Christmas Bargains
AT
W. R. NAIL'S RED RACKET STORE.

Never before in all of our mercantile history have girls been offered in better shape.

The big Red Racket in all of which are their wares:

Beautiful, Durable, and Cheap.

Remember it should happen that we have not yet to stock what you desire, we prefer to order it for you in advance.

RUE UP PHONE 103.

W. R. NAIL.

The weekly appearance of the New Crop.

New Crop.
New Orleans.

MOLASSES.

SOMETHING VERY FINE!

NEW CROP.

Raisins.
Currants.
Cranberries.
Crabapples.

Chester Millinery Co.

STRENGTH MADE \saver
WINNIE MCKINLEY
HER LIFE AND WORK.

XMAS NEWS.

WINNIE MCKINLEY
HER LIFE AND WORK.

XMAS NEWS.

WINNIE MCKINLEY
HER LIFE AND WORK.

J. B. STAIN.
A native of Chester.

She was a native of Chester.

Her death was due to the toxic fumes of the gas.

She was 87 years old.

Esther Strong, Mrs. R. A. Love left yesterday for Kentucky to visit her mother.

Burroughs Boyd, Jessie Boyil, Capt. J. W. Carlisle, of Spartanburg, died yesterday, leaving many friends who mourn his death.

Mrs. R. A. Love left yesterday for Kansas City, Missouri, to visit her mother.

Mrs. H. Hamilton, of Spartanburg, died last week, leaving many friends who mourn her death.

Our price are very reasonable.

Most of them are up-to-date job work on very all articles.

We had many friends who mourn his death.

We fow and conversed with our ex-Pastor.

Mrs. H. Hamilton was a native of Spartanburg, South Carolina for over 50 years. She is known to you.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

Cherryville Letter. November 5th. — We reprinted with satisfaction the letter of the Rev. T. H. Hamor, a former resident of this place. He writes from New York, Thursday night at the Public Library of the city. Mr. Hamor is kind hearted and generous, and had many friends who mourn his death.

The ground here was still dry, but the second put up in wheat, in which we are quite satisfied. The field is well tilled and clean, and the weather is favorable for spring work.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

What The Lantern Said of Quiz Night. — We are glad to see that the new local play, "The Lantern," is being so well received. It is a very good play, and the scenery and costumes are excellent.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

Mr. J. W. Smith raised sugar, corn, and syrup another crop in his field, and we are glad to hear that the new local play, "The Lantern," is being so well received. It is a very good play, and the scenery and costumes are excellent.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.

The heart of the small boy was already up, but needed moisture to keep it going.