Appl Pat Pending.

Hill, Wednesday morning. He visited Mrs. Kennedy's funeral at Due West last Friday. He was taken ill on his way home and was operated on, after spending a week in Due West last week.

Mrs. Bessie Strong, of Cornwell, is home from the hospital. She visited her mother and former pupils in the Wateree section.

Miss Willie McFadden, of Rock Hill, came down Tuesday to visit Mrs. Beatty. She stayed with Mrs. W. A. Woodward in town one day last Friday.

Miss Esther Strong, of Cornwell, is back home. She visited her mother and former pupils last week.

The story concluded with this surmise:

"Every notice that people owe much but don't know it, or that they are too busy or don't care to pay it, is enough to make a person feel helpless. If you want to know not only, but also, the reason why you can't pay it, read the story again. If you want to make it your own, read it again. If you want to understand it, read it again. If you want to learn from it, read it again. If you want to profit by it, read it again. If you want to profit by it, read it again. If you want to profit by it, read it again.

The Proper Spirit.
