THE VISION OF THE IDEAL

"All men are created equal, but few are born with a golden spoon in their mouths.

A leader knows how to achieve his goals by using the power of attraction.

The truth is not always easy to accept, but it's important to strive for accuracy.

Do not turn away from the facts, even if they are uncomfortable.

The key is to keep moving forward, even when the going gets tough.

THE HALLS OF MUSIC

A journey through the halls of music is like traveling through a world of emotion and beauty.

In this world, every song is a story, and every melody has a message.

Our goal is to bring these stories to life, so that everyone can experience the magic of music.

The Legend of Cateechee Falls

In the fall of 1819 when the Carolina Cherokees were retreating south into the state of Georgia, they were attacked and ambushed by a part of the Creek Indians. leave the usual route and go as near to Robeson, the assignees, as possible in order to rescue your property. This Indian nation was called, "Te- reopyam." The word is Cherokee, "tracer." The Cherokee were late and a small number of the Creek were left behind. Toarpoa, the Cherokee chief, turned back to rescue his people. The Creek surrounded the Cherokees and killed most of them. The story of one of these chiefs is a wonderful one.
