Chester, S. C.

The Micawber spirit of "waiting for something to turn up" has kept many a business in swaddling clothes and landed many another in limbo. The merchant who is waiting for "better times" will eventually realize that the "best time" is past.

Go after business when it is hard to get, because that is when you need it most. Keep after it during busy times, for then is when you reap the harvest.

The time to advertise is all the time. Banish the idea from your mind that to make an impression with advertising you must spend a "barrel of money."
