SECRETARY WILSON'S REPORT.

During the current year, the secretary of agriculture reported the following statistics for Chester County:

- Cotton: 100,000 bales
- Tobacco: 50,000 bales
- Wheat: 20,000 bales
- Corn: 30,000 bushels

These figures reflect the successful agricultural year in Chester County, with production levels exceeding expectations. The secretary also reported on the importance of irrigation and the need for continued investment in agricultural research and development.

Jewelry

The Robinson firm has been at the forefront of the jewelry market for over 50 years, offering a wide range of products including rings, bracelets, necklaces, and earrings. With a particular focus on diamond jewelry, the firm ensures that all products meet the highest standards of craftsmanship and durability. The Robinson firm is committed to providing customers with a wide selection of jewelry options, from classic to contemporary designs.

Industrial School for Negroes

Dear Miss Robinson,

I am writing this letter to express my gratitude for the support your firm has provided to the Industrial School for Negroes. The school has seen significant improvements in recent years, thanks in large part to the financial assistance you have provided.

The school is now able to offer a broader range of educational opportunities to its students, including vocational training programs that prepare them for employment in a variety of industries. The school has also been able to invest in new facilities and equipment, enhancing the educational experience for its students.

Once again, thank you for your commitment to supporting the education of our young people. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

FRIDAY, DEC. 9, 1888.

Mr. Jim W. Haught, formerly owner of the Times, has been rewarded with the position of postmaster. The Times was the only paper to the credit of which he was not on the list of disloyal men. He is expected to be in town soon and we hope that he will be a loyal citizen.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company has petitioned the government for a charter to build a railway from the state line to Cheyenne, and a charter to build a branch from Cheyenne to Cheyenne. The company has already commenced operations and is making progress. The company is expected to be well capitalized and to be able to carry out its plans.

The State Board of Freeholders has met in regular session and has acted on the matter of the election of a new county auditor. The new auditor will be elected in the spring and will take office in the fall.

The Western Nebraska Railroad has been reorganized and is expected to make a new effort to secure a charter. The company is well capitalized and has a good location.

The Southern Pacific Railroad has been very active and has been making improvements on its line. The company is well capitalized and has a good location.

An act of the legislature has been signed by the governor authorizing the construction of a new state penitentiary.
The new penitentiary will be built at a cost of $1,000,000.

The State Board of Education has met and has approved the appointment of a new superintendent. The new superintendent is expected to be a able man and to make a good job of the work.

IN SHAKERETOWN.

In Shakeretown the sale of grain has been very satisfactory. The purchases have been made at a fair price. Though the corn sellers have not been able to get more than a few cents below the average, the buyers have been satisfied and have paid promptly.

Missus William Smith, the heifer, has been sold for $50. She is a fine animal and will make a good addition to the herd. The proceeds will be applied to the purchase of new stock.

One Case of Death.

It is with great regret that we learn of the death of Mr. John Smith, who passed away last week. He was a respected citizen and had been a member of the community for many years. His death is a great loss to his family and friends.

The family has arranged for the burial of Mr. Smith. The service will be held on Sunday morning at the United Methodist Church. All friends and neighbors are invited to attend.
