Description of series and its contents:

This series consists of term papers done by students in various departments for an honors seminar that was usually held each semester and in order to meet the requirements for departmental honors. There are no honors papers for 1971/1972. For other term papers done by Winthrop students see W426.1: Student essays, term papers and literary works and the vertical file under “term papers”. The records are arranged chronologically by academic year with no particular arrangement within the year.
