ROBINSON exhibits the Finest and Largest Jewelry Stock in Chester.

No attempt is made to give a list of everything in our Store; if you get an idea of what Robinson's is like, the object in view will have been accomplished. The stock is too big, covering a wide scope, to hope that an advertisement could catalogue all things that are being chosen for Holiday a, but it is believed that in a general way some sort of a picture, as it were, can be represented to guide you to the happiest selections in your line, by using...Come in and look over this beautiful stock...impressed on us by the last evening.

Supplement to The Lantern.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dixon, of Banks, are in the city today.

Mrs. H. S. Heyman has returned from a visit to her father in Savannah.

Miss Mabel and Master Toby Johnson and Mrs. I. E. Wallace spent yesterday in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Street, of Orrs Station, went to Columbia this morning and will return tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bateerree and daughter, Miss Nannie, of Blackstock, were in the city yesterday.

Miss Clarice Wright, of Woodside, has accepted the position of stenographer for themselves and others in adjacent counties. The bonds carry a $300 interest and sold at 104.

Judge Starbuck, executor, were not informed whether or not all the bonds in the bond issue were bought last Monday by White Bros., for themselves and others in the city yesterday. The bonds were bought by Mr. T. M. Allen, of Harrodsburg, for $10.00 an acre.

Mr. J. N. Whiteside bought the Robinson tract at $10.00 an acre.

The Agurs lands, advertised by J. B. Stubblefield, executor, were not sold, but Mr. T. M. Allen, of Harrodsburg, bought the Dunlap place, formerly the home of Col. S. C. Dunlap, at $10.00 an acre.

Woods Drug Store Sold.

Mr. Harper B. Woods has sold his drug store and will go to Arizona next week, in the hope of improvement in his health. Colors Stoltzman and Willie Sims have bought the store, and it is pretty safe to predict their success in the business. They are young men of fine character, strictly sober and industrious. Stark and Willie have been employed in drug stores, Leiter's and Woods', and Robert has been in Mr. R. B. Moffat's wholesale grocery establishment. We are not informed whether or not all of them will give their attention to their drug store.

People who want clothes at a great bargain will read the advertisement of J. L. Collins & Co. with profit. He offers from one-half to three-fourths or more of the price off.

The Masons held a great time Wednesday night, but we have no definite report. Refreshments were served by Mr. J. L. Simmons. They expect to be in their new hall, in the Patterson building, by Jan. 1st. The Knights of Pythias will occupy the same hall.

Mr. J. E. Wallace, of Heath Springs, came over Wednesday evening to visit Mr. W. G. Johnson's family and left this morning for a visit to her relatives at Newberry. Master Toby Johnson went with her to stay until Christmas with his sister, Miss Mary Johnson, who is teaching there and will come home to spend the holidays.

County Bonds Sold.

The Chester and Cheraw refunding bonds, which have been advertised, were bought last Monday by White Bros., for themselves and others in the city yesterday. They are of several varieties and of great size.

Mrs. Watts Dead.

Mrs. Mary Ann Lucas Watts died at Lockhart yesterday and will be buried at Liberty church at 2:00 this afternoon. She was a resident of this city for a number of years. We are unable to get any particulars for this issue.

JUST RECEIVED.—A nice line of ladies' and gents' house slippers. Just the thing for a nice Xmas present. Lindsay Merch.

The Monument.

A most harmonious meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the Daughters of the Confederacy with committees of the Veterans. A design was selected and the work will be pushed to completion. Committees in the county are asked to push their work without delay.

Finland.

We suppose nobody in the county can show finer turnips than Mr. T. R. McKeown, of Blackstock. He had a load in town yesterday and left some at this office. They are of several varieties and of great size.
