Teach Fresmen About Winthrop

While the Johnsonian wants to deserve a reputation for accuracy, thoroughness, and fidelity, it also wants to be a guide for Winthrop students. You will do us a favor if you call our attention to any errors in this newspaper which you feel should be corrected. Your help in improving the Johnsonian will be greatly appreciated.

A LONGER AND MORE EFFECTIVE ORIENTATION

Dear Campus Town Hall,

As a result of the revamped program for freshmen who have participated in this year's program, the orientation group has been able to help freshmen orient themselves more effectively and successfully. This year's orientation program was even more successful than last year's, and the freshmen were able to learn the new facets of Winthrop more efficiently.

Sincerely,

BRODY, STOA

Your Hospitality — Your Dividends

For the past several weeks Winthrop has been enjoying the presence of new students, and it has been a pleasure to see how enthusiastic they have been about their new college. The hospitality shown to these new students has been greatly appreciated, and it has been evident that Winthrop has made a strong impression on them.

The atmosphere of Winthrop is one of friendliness and excitement, and the students have been quick to respond. The campus has been buzzing with activity, and it has been a pleasure to see how much the students have enjoyed their time here.

Episcopal Conference Is At Winthrop

The Winthrop Centennial club was hostess to the South Carolina Episcopal student conference, April 4-10, at Winthrop.

Delegates were present from the Baptist, Christian, Catholic, Cumber- lund, the Medical college, the College of Charleston, the University of South Carolina, Columbia, and Furman universities.

The schedule of events included registration at the Student Center, business meeting, Holy Communion and Sunday lecture, discussion on "Youth in Church," and "Youth in the Church," a campus picnic, a social hour, and service at the Church of our Savior in Rock Hill.

Honor Medal Offered To PE Majors

The Hiram Medal in memory of Hiram O. Baker, Class of 1932, will be offered this year for the first time, according to Miss Julia Post, head of the physical education department.

The medal is to be presented annually by the Student Council and the Student Council to those who have made a special contribution to the department in that field. The qualifications for receiving the medal are, leadership, professional development, social quality, and appearance.

The medal will be personalized on the left with the name of the receiving senior, and a committee appointed by the president will select the winner.
