Four Opera Stars Open Artist Series October 23

By ELIZABETH CUMMINGS

Winthrop college will present this year one of the best (and most expensive to bring to the campus) Artist Concert series, opening on October 23 with the Metropolitan quartet—the same group which gave the initial performance in the college's large auditorium a year and a half ago.

Nine numbers comprise the series.
The quartet, composed of Kathryn Meale, contralto; Josephine Arikket, soprano; Igor Gorin, baritone; and Frederick Jager, tenor, were greatly applauded by a record-breaking crowd at their first appearance here at the dedication of the new administration building May 28, 1938. In October, however, Charles Kullman will replace Frederick Jager, tenor.

Following the quartet at intermission during the season will be a series of performances by the United States Navy band; Albert Spellman, world-famous violinist; Helen Jepson, Metropolitan soprano; Igor Gorin, opera star; and tenor Frederick Jagel, who has also made numerous concert appearances in all the principal music centers of this country and Europe. His musical career has been interrupted except during the first few years of World War I when served as liaison officer in the aviation corps. In addition to his activity as violinist, Mr. Spellman has composed much music for the violin.

The San Carlo Opera company will present two operas at the college sometime in January. The English opera, "Marca," will be presented at a matinée and "Rigoletto" as the evening performance. Singing the leading roles will be such stars as Carlo Cacciali, Arnold Lindo, and Lucille Bennett from the opera company. The March. The ballet is made up of a company of 60 members. It is a new production of the famous ballet company, which has sent this year one of its best concerted dance pieces and is under the direction of Fortune Gello, and features also the San Carlo Ballet and the San Carlo Opera orchestra. Carl Ponce is the famed musical director and conductor of the group.

Winthrop Jam Session
On Friday evening, October 14, Helen Jepson will make her second appearance on a Winthrop Artist Concert series. The famous Metropolitan soprano has been heard in concert here two years past, when her beautiful voice and charming personality completely captured her large audience. She is assured for her not only large, but enthusiastic return.

Edward J. and Bethel L. Hughes, duo-pianists who have made themselves familiar to Winthrop music students through several years past, will play here on the evening of Saturday, February 24. Mr. Hughes has appeared in recital and as soloist with orchestras in all the principal music centers of this country and Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were invited to give "as first White House musical or the administration of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, in 1933, and since that time have made numerous appearances as a piano team.

An addition to the large group of ballet stars will be the same group which featured also the San Carlo ballet. This ballet will be presented by the renowned Littlefield ballet company under the direction of Fortune Gello, and features also the San Carlo Ballet and the San Carlo Opera orchestra. Carl Ponce is the famed musical director and conductor of the group.

The Johnsson Gets a Letter

Last week the following campus brief appeared in The Johnssonian:

An Eventual Vacation

Dr. Elizabeth Harris claims the West End Club of the University of South Carolina is the ultimate vacation spot. "Some girls could use a break," she said. "It's a great place to unwind and get away from it all." The club is located in the heart of the city, offering a range of amenities including a pool, gym, and bar. It's a popular destination for students looking to escape the stresses of campus life.

Not much later than the presses rolled came the following letter—and are our faces red?

Dear Sirs and Madams (you call it however you like it):...
Six days a week the freshman study, study, study, and work, work, work, but comes the weekend, and come those happy, happy days off. From 2 to 5:45 o'clock on Saturday and Sunday afternoon, and from 7 to 10 o'clock on Saturday and Sunday nights the freshman talk, and gossip, and smile coyly with "him." These lucky girls pictured above are proof that our freshmen do date. Reading from left to right they are Virgil Foster and Edith Brown of Spartanburg; Buddy Bolyton, Dot Williams, Gussie Boland, and Lib Williams, all from Springfield; and Helen Bray and "Fug" Hollis from Chester. Bancroft Girls 'Swing Out' at Saturday Night 'Fair'

It was a fiddle-playing, hot-dog eating, Virginia-reeling Saturday night for the Bancroft girls at their Cocktails and Country Fair. And Mr. and Mrs. Clowes led the crowd around a sky-line of green, red, yellow, orange, brown, and blue to the paper crunching at the entrance.

To put some swing into the fair, Virginia-reeling was taught to the fair maidens by Miss Nina Burns, one of the Bancrofters. The junior members conducted all the events by Miss Maude Wallace, Alice Martin, and Virginia Bonnette. The social meeting was presided over by May Layle Rogers, Emily Rhinehart, Vivian Major, at the piano, and Fran Muirhead, social chairman.

Miss Luisa Burns spoke as chairman of the business meeting. Construction on the Bancroft girls' Country Fair Saturday will be on display on the campus next week. The Junior class has been solicited by the Bancroft girls for ideas and assistance next week. So if you have any ideas, bring them to the Junior class.

Archery Club Has Outing

At Shack Tuesday afternoon the Archery club began its busiest of busy booths with paper money which was distributed freely to the guests on arrival. This was done by May Layle Rogers, Emily Rhinehart, Vivian Major, at the piano, and Fran Muirhead, social chairman.

The fair was divided into three groups which will regroup next week. Food was served by Miss Maude Pasley, Miss Nanalie Stokes, and Dr. and Mrs. Shelton Phelps, Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins Brothers in Baltimore, Miss May Layle Rogers, Emily Rhinehart, Vivian Major, at the piano, and Fran Muirhead, social chairman.

In Toilet Water

"Beauty at Its Best" will arrive within three weeks after the Junior class project was turned in last week in the home management cottage. Several new members, according to Julia King, president.

Juniors to Be in Charge of October 7 Says King

A sample ring may be seen at Tucker's Jewelry store downtown through which the contract was given, and in other sample rings will be on display on the campus next week.

There will be two rings of gold and two rings of silver each of which will be on the campus one day for the purpose of inspecting the rings. Payment must be made in advance of the time of ordering. Several minor changes have been made in the ring which are desired by the present ring committee and which will be more comfortable on the hand.

And from vicinity of the gym this week comes the awash of Miss Lea's last-gaspers—let it go. With three big classes she teaches the girls the swing of the club—encourage them with the story of the little fifth-grade training school boy who, quite as by the way, pedaled his bicycle out to the country club and, carrying his own clubs, shoots a game of 40 or 45—which is a very good score. That's the only way to really learn a sport, believe Miss Lea—to go up with it—so said Patty Berg. With encouragement from a golf father and free access to a good course this last champion. Now at college age she has gone pro for Wilson Brothers—travels, gives demonstrations. Incidentally, Patty is to come to Rock Hill this year for a demonstration.

Still on golf—no other sport has done so much for charity in recent months. During five weeks the Red Cross benefited to the extent of $60,000 from the links. And Walter Hagen, the game's greatest actor, after 25 years on the links says the psychology of the game is to make the hard shots look easy, the easy ones look hard. He'd rather win by outsmarting an opponent than by "beating par to death." The winning story in each case with the exception of the "Double Bunkie Slam." Patty's going to give the fans no mistake in the skill of young McFadden, "Dodger boy" who went north to join the Dodgers, "Dodger way plays." Will fans come to your group practices. And don't forget to shoot your rounds this winter.

Garden Welcomes Members

The joint recreation committee of the Y, Student Government, and the Student Association is trying to help us remedy this situation of community sitting. Already they're planning some night Saturday night dances, and making suggestions for date recreations on the campus; something really new. Boys who own a hundred or two hundred miles to see us, look around and wonder what we can offer—and kids. Ladies' parties were how—we've run out of "on this year.

ATTENTION, YOU ARCHERS!

The new equipment is up and ready to be used. Don't forget to shoot your rounds this winter.
