The special touch on which they will also plan the show of the campus from front to back, beginning at 8:15. Student Government officers, community circles, senior circles, string ensemble and the band will also be permitted to attend the fair. The round trip fee is $2.

Home Ec. Hall Presentation November 1-3

Thurmond hall, Winthrop home economics building, will be formally presented to the general public of South Carolina and the United States November 1st. "It is the most modern building of its kind in the United States," said Miss Sarah Cragwall, head of the home economics department, and it is reported to be very well known in home economics circles.

Second floor of the building will house the library of the faculty and administrative offices of the home economics department. The library will include prominent home economists of the country.

The following is a tentative program of activities to be held in Home Ec. Hall during the week: Monday morning there will be a band concert, with Winthrop students, in the auditorium. At noon the college guests will attend the first dinner of the month, and the public will be invited to a reception.

Finance, vice president; Mrs. J. L. Smith, who returned to the campus for the occasion, en- veloped the 1940 Order alumnae on the campus. The ex-officio group to assist the council of Winthrop College is the Student Government Board for the current year.

You've heard the walls and groans about assembly programs—critics that they aren't interesting, that they last too long, or that what they have to say doesn't appeal to the average college student. We decided to put our ear to the ground and see what students would like so about a program before we opened it up for the first time. After we read the hours, we came to the question, we put the assembly program to the test, and got these answers: "Would you like to have an assembly program?" Among the members on 'The book I've enjoyed most in the last five years'.

On the whole the answers were encouraging. Many had some idea of the books which impressed them, and were glad to read them, maybe their curiosity whetted by a review in the columns of a newspaper. We judged a couple of different methods of approval of the necessary minutes of congregations to include some high-minded and high-sounding things. We need to make it a facul-

Bulldogs Entertain Scotties
At Honest-to-Gosh Carnival
The bulldogs and scotties had a hating good time at the doggie carnival last night when the juniors played host-es to their sister class.

The field was adorned with fortune tellers, ticket takers, hula hoops, bowwow boxes, pet houses, wood-word alley, hopscotch, hand players, and all things that go along with an honest-to-goodner carnival.

Hot dogs—with or without—were served for the beggars, and a prance of horses and wagon provided the spectators.

Clowns added to the atmosphere and kept the visitors in merriment till the carnival closed.

New Pfeian Members
Enjoy Outing Held In Wheeler's Backyard
New members became old members when Pfeian members gathered around their yard in Wheeler hall for a steak supper the other evening.

Swim Club Adds Twenty-Eight Members

Twenty-eight swimmers were chosen as members of the Swimming club at the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The following will join the senior: Annette Woodard, Wilma Carter, Eunice Rocker, Margaret Edwards, Helen Humpfert, Alice Bagie, Sue Williams, Thelma Cooper, Betty Hart, Mary Vannett, Jane Chestnut, Harriet Whitaker, Betty Hart, Vi Crish, Doris Johnson, Yrma Stratton, and Doris Reeder.

This group will not swim with the regular club but practice in order to qualify for membership in the senior club.

21 to Attend Joint Y Retreat at Camp Adger

A three-day retreat will be held at Camp Adger in Rocky Mount this weekend. One of the senior members at the retreat, and Miss Elizabeth S. "Bess" Moore, President of the class will serve as leader.

Many Kinds Of Papers In Johnnsonian Room

Papers for the first term have been received and are now on exhibition in the Student Union. The papers are composed of four parts: a title page, a brief statement about the writer, the contents of the paper, and the comments of the faculty members. The papers are arranged alphabetically by authors' last names.

Four Club Members to Attend Archery Tourney

Four selected members of the archery club will go to Columbia next Saturday to compete in an archery tournament. All members of the club who are interested in participating are required to complete the necessary paperwork before going. The competition will be held on the Winthrop campus.

The above picture is simply a graphic way of presenting the preferences of Winthrop freshmen in seven different fields.
