18 Delegates Elected to Convention

Fifteen delegates from the five dormitories and three from the two-town girls were elected Monday to the new constitutional convention which held its preliminary meeting yesterday. Candidates were selected by a roll-call vote. The constitutional convention will be convened at Breazeale house to provide better working conditions for student government. The new auditorium and home economics building areas will be completed by 1945.

Extension of Paved Roadways Highlights Improvements

An extension of paved campus roadways to include the new auditorium and home economics building areas will improve the pedestrian traffic along the campus. The new road project will be provided with new lighting facilities for better illumination and safety.

Winthrop listens to the radio, there's no doubt of that from the variety of things that they like to listen to—music, news, soap operas or just to hear the traffic reports. While it is true, the station turns its ear to the news, it is equally true that Winthrop listens to the radio for entertainment. Winthrop listens to the radio to be entertained and to be informed.

Classes will be announced for the students present at the Presbyterian Student Conference.

Biology Club Issues Bids

Bids were issued to 32 house brokers by Forsey and Sanford, campus biology club at the Presbyterian Student Conference.

"Devotion To One's Country"

Patrician is not a new thing in America. Americans have loved this country from its beginning. However, devotion is accompanied by some customs which, unfortunately, few in this section follow. For instance, when the "Star-Spangled Banner" was being sung at the Presbyterian Student Conference, a large crowd gathered in front of the Widan Win, where "Old Glory" passes by, as in a parade. A man in soldier's uniform during the playing of "Old Glory" passes by, as in a parade.

A man in civilian clothes and a man in soldier's uniform during the playing of "Old Glory" passes by, as in a parade.

Printers' Marks and Credits

Printers' marks and credits are the marks of indentation that "Ike" used when he printed in colleges. Reasonably priced, they are for college use only. They are sold in one good store and shipped to campus stores for students in journalism, and to promote generally the welfare of Winthrop college.

The youth of our community, which includes Winthrop, should set older citizens an example in their outward observance of respect for our flag and national anthem.

TOGS and TRAPPINGS

BY BETTY WARDMAKER

Fashions, we think, are still important in Gram-Chat-a-lax mind—especially at this time of year when dresses and costumes are thought of synonymously. Right now it is the plus size mold that is the big headline maker. Draperies tend to predominate. The figures for the members of the English faculty are on the plus size mold. In short, in a costume play of the French Revolution was dressed by Adela Reade, president of the fraternity.

Monday night the group assembled to the Green Room for tea and refreshments. Betty Howie, special chairman of Masquer, was in charge of refreshments.

Party Wednesday For New Members Of Swimming Club

Sports and Fun on the Campus

by CATHERINE BAILEY

Girls going away—
Out to join the masses.

Fun to go on weekends—
Stay at home and watch Monday classes.

But last weekend, classes were forgotten in the excitement of going to Clemson—and other places—but mostly to Clemson for Autumn Ball and the game Saturday. Four of the five sponsors for the ball were Winthropians, y'know. And so we had a good percentage of the young ladies encouraging the Tigers against Davidson. Whether that helped or not, we wonder. But something really made this Tigers roar. That 39-0 victory is still last week's biggest news. Some sports writers seem to think the Deacons had it coming to them because they've been reading too much newspaper praise. Regardless, the game proved that Clemson can really play a good game—even worthy of the praise of any football fan.

Another game we liked was the Davidson-V. M. I. clash in Charlotte. Though V. M. I. was the favored team, the Winthroites put up a good fight. Dave Spencer, the smallest player I've ever seen, does wonders with that ball. That game was definitely his. And when he was hurt and taken out, the Winthroites lost the loss. But they retaliated in the last quarter for a beautiful comeback made on fumbles. The ball, passed to a Davidson boy, was fumbled and caught by a V. M. I. Like a slippery bar of soap, it slid from his hands into the waiting arms of another Davidson player. This one turned and fled, tenderly clutching the ball—and a touchdown it was.

Football is a wonderful game. And having a seat on the 50-yard line, front row is no drawback. I'm for more of that.

Our thanks to Dr. Poole of Clemson for the hospitality invited for his campus. We can think of nothing we would like better—except, of course, having the cadets visit us.

The most fun we saw on the campus last week was the carnival the juniors gave the freshmen. Wagon rides, bingo, comics, Costellos made an evening of merriment not to be forgotten. And after knocking all the bottles with convenient stop at the Hotel Clarion, we were out for sports.

Wanted:
A wise foresman we do request.
Phys. ed. major, and all the rest
Who suffers with us on the tennis courts
Or athletic field, when we're out for sports.

Please:
Remember to get the sand off your shoes when you go to the gym.
